ALL LEATHERMAN KIN HISTORY

REV. I. JOHN LETHERMAN

*We search the world for truth; we call
The good, the pure, the beautiful,
From graven stone, and written scroll,
From all old flower-fields of the soul;
And, weary seekers of the best,
We come back laden from our quest,
To find that all the sages said,
Is in the Book our mothers read.*

DEDICATION

This book is sincerely dedicated—

First, to the memory of our fore parents whose feet have trod the earth and whose ashes now lie in the dust, making the ground upon which we walk holy and sacred.

Second, to the living whose days are fleeting with the panoramic present and who too will soon be numbered with those gone on before.

Third, to future posterity. May they attain the "peace of God which passeth all understanding," and, as well as we, cherish the heritage so graciously granted by the brave pioneers.

INTRODUCTION

Quite a long time ago the Rev. I. J. Letherman, now of Wakarusa, Ind., conceived the idea that it would be a splendid thing if his ancestry might be commemorated by publishing a history of them and their descendants, down through the generations to the living present, and distributing it among the relatives. At first he had in mind the lineage of only his immediate family and near relatives, but after he began gathering data of the early settlers, it soon became clear to him that the information that came into his hands called for a much wider scope. This prompted him to extend his quest to cover all Leatherman families. Thus the All Leatherman Kin History had its beginning. It was not until some years later that his co-worker, Emma Leatherman Candler of Marietta, Ohio, became associated with him in gathering and compiling the data contained in this publication.

To compile a history of ten generations is no small task, and the compilers kept on working year after year to produce this volume of records which cover a period of more than 200 years.

Without regard of cost to themselves the compilers have written hundreds of letters to both private individuals and public officials, travelled thousands of miles and spent weeks of time in search of data contained in court records, on grave markers in out of the way places, in family Bibles, or wherever facts might be found that would throw light upon the lives and deeds of our forefathers.

With the Leatherman characteristics of energy, zeal and determination to help them in overcoming the many deterring difficulties encountered, they have completed a work that will be of inestimable value to future as well as present generations. They seek no personal gain nor any greater reward than that derived from the satisfaction of having completed the hard but interesting work of perpetuating a great people.

Having been closely associated with both compilers during much of the time while they were collecting and compiling this data, I personally know that almost unlimited time and energy were expended to accomplish their purpose, and, not for myself alone but in behalf of all, I take this opportunity for expressing our appreciation of their efforts to give us knowledge and pleasure.

INTRODUCTION

The history of the Leatherman family has hitherto been unpreserved except by personal recollections transmitted from generation to generation, and by such information as may be found in family Bibles, church archives, public records, cemeteries, etc. To honor our parents is a divinely ordained duty. We should regard it not merely vanity to perpetuate the names and worthy deeds of our ancestors, but rather commend these; and this more especially if their lives and virtues are worthy of emulation by their descendants.

During the early years of the settlement of America, many immigrants came from Germany, Holland, and Switzerland, where they were suffering religious persecution, and found homes in America. Among these were Jacob Ledgerman, wife and two sons, who settled in Bedminster Township, Bucks Co., Pa. Their descendants are now widely scattered.

For many years no attempt was made to collect data of these families. However, some years ago, Irvin John Letherman, a worthy grandson of Joseph K. Letherman who was born in Bucks Co., Pa., in close proximity to the original Leatherman settlement and with his family emigrated to Ohio (1840), just one hundred years ago this spring, felt impelled to sacrifice time and means in collecting records and data for the information of future generations. There will be errors and omissions, of course, but they are not the fault of the compilers. They have given to the world a worthy record of these ancestors, and it should be received with gratitude and appreciation.

From the book, we shall learn of the location of many of our relatives and in some cases, shall be surprised to find some located not far from us, and to read the extensive list of children and grandchildren of those whom we last met as blooming boys and girls, twenty to forty years ago. Perhaps we may be like the traveler in the desert, who saw in the distance a lion. Nearer approach convinced him that it was a domestic animal, still nearer it proved to be a man, and when they met, lo! it was his brother.

FOREWORD

It is a pleasure to look over the names of the large list of kin and find so many who are deeply intersted in the genealogy of their forefathers. It is natural for man to indulge in matters pertaining to his own existence. We find that the early saints recorded in the Bible, made a record of the progenitors of our Savior, Jesus, the Christ. Their chief purpose was to establish the facts relating to their beloved Leader and Savior. It was a mutual family affair, a foundation upon which to build the living church of our age and the ages to come. May that monument of love never crumble to the earth,—may our love for our ancestry and for the church be comparable with that of the early disciples and saints.

While gathering records of our immediate lineage it seemed imprudent not to collect those of other branches with whom we came in touch, but the more we indulged in the extended field, the greater became the burden. During the years spent in search of data and records, words of cheer and otherwise were received, but we were determined to “stay by it” until we felt that we could give some deeply intersted relatives at least an outline that would serve as a foundation upon which to build an unabridged record of our families. Nevertheless, had we fully realized the volume of our task we would not have undertaken it.

Genealogies, especially those of large volume, seldom, if ever, can be made complete, and errors are inevitable. We are well aware that imperfections, errors, and omissions will be found in this history, and for these we solicit the reader’s forbearance. Omissions are not altogether due to lack of response on the part of those who were asked to contribute their records, but sometimes to our inability to contact those who might be able to supply the information needed. One of our greatest trials was to have two or three different dates of the same event stare us in the face, all of which dates had been given to us in good faith. Since events like births, deaths, marriages, etc., have but one specific time and place, the question was which of the conflicting records to choose. A few of such differences could be adjusted through a succession of letters but when this failed we could only use our best judgment in making the selection.

We are truly grateful to all of the many friends who responded with their family records or helped in any way in the compiling of this history, and for the interest and co-operation shown in general. We feel especially indebted and are wholeheartedly grateful to Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Eby of Goshen, Ind., who so freely gave us a great deal of moral support and encouragement as well as material help throughout the long years of our endeavors.

There are dozens to whom we feel doubly indebted for their kindness in assisting us to the best of their ability. A few of these are: Isaac O. Yothers, Doylestown, Pa., I. Erwin Yothers, Perkasio, Pa., Miss Hettie Davy, Elkins, W. Va., Mrs. Olive W. (Leatherman) Borrer, Burlington, W. Va., Dr. Ida L. Eby, Goshen, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Abram S. Leatherman, Pipersville, Pa., Mrs. Anna (Bailey) Powers, Keyser, W. Va., John C. Leatherman, Myersville, Md., Mrs. Emma L. Gross, Plumsteadville, Pa., Mrs. Fannie (Moyer) Singer, Goshen, Ind., Mahlon Barton, Thurmont, Md., Rev. Allen M. Fretz, Perkasio, Pa.

We wish also to give due credit for the valuable information gleaned from the publications of A. J. Fretz, from the Hostetler History, from the Holdeman History, and other publications.

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS

The numeral at the left of each name represents the generation of that person, the immigrant being considered as of the first generation, his children of the second, his grandchildren of the third, and so on. Those persons who could not be traced to their immigrant or common ancestor are placed in the generation which conforms as nearly as possible to the generation of their contemporaries of known lineage. The children of each family are recorded in the order of their birth whenever determinable. The oldest child of the common parent and that child's descendants, down to the latest generation, are recorded first, then the second child and descendants and so on to the last descendant of the youngest child of the common parent.

Townships mentioned without county or state refer to Bucks Co., Pa. For example, Hilltown Twp. means Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa.

Abbreviations commonly used are employed in this work, such as the names of the states, the months of the year, etc. Others not so commonly used are adopted herein for the sake of brevity. These are:

b for born.	Ger for German.
Bapt for Baptist.	Grad for graduate, graduated.
Br for Brethren.	Luth for Lutheran
C or c for children, child.	m for married, marriage.
Cath for Catholic.	M B C for Mennonite Brethren in Christ.
Ch for Church.	M E for Methodist Episcopal.
Ch Br for Church of the Brethren.	Menn for Mennonite
Ch Chr for Church of Christ.	M P for Methodist Protestant.
Chr Ch for Christian Church.	Meth S for Methodist South.
Chr Sci for Christian Science.	Presb for Presbyterian.
Cong for Congregational.	Ref for Reformed.
d for died.	Res for reside, residence.
dau for daughter.	S or s for single.
Disc for Disciple.	U B for United Brethren.
d s for died single.	Un Ch for Universalist Church.
Dunk for Dunkard.	Unit for Unitarian.
d y for died young.	Univ for University.

ALL LEATHERMAN KIN HISTORY

IMMIGRATION

The immigration from Europe between the years 1725 and 1775 was exceedingly heavy. Great opportunities within the reach of every roving nature seemed to stare into the wistful eyes of the oppressed who desired independence and peace. These venturesome souls, the early arrivals in America, were very eager to escape military training and military activities, to live in peace and harmony with one another, and be free to direct their lives and worship their God according to the dictates of conscience rather than the dictates of their rulers. They were non-resistant in belief and conservative in all manner of life among men and God's creation. They catered to honest and religious citizenship. They chose to brave the wilds of America in preference to the wars of Europe. They chose tolerance of free worship in preference to monarchic dictation. They elected to build for themselves a new home and a new life in foreign fields and strange surroundings rather than continue to submit to the indignities, the oppression, the slavery meted out to them in their homeland. They probably did not fully realize the extent of the hardships they would have to undergo nor the many obstacles they would meet and have to overcome, but even these were preferable to what they were already enduring, and "with it all" they persevered, and America became a paradise for their projects.

The name "Leatherman" undoubtedly originated in the same manner in which many other family names were formed. In olden times no family names existed until it became necessary to distinguish between two or more persons with the same baptismal name. This distinction was made, in some cases, by adding to each person's baptismal name, a phrase which indicated his trade, his business, or his place of abode, etc., such as John the baker, John the smith, Heinrich der Berg Mann (Henry the mountain man). In time these were shortened and simplified into John Baker, John Smith, Henry Bergman, etc., the name "Lederman" at first being "der Leder Mann" (the leather man), then shortened to "Leder Mann", and finally combined into "Lederman." The initials "L. M." in place of the name, as found on some Leatherman grave markers, is further evidence that formerly the name had been written as two separate words. The variations, other than Lederman, in spelling the name in German, probably resulted, at least in part, from the dialects spoken in the different provinces of Germany. The effect of dialectic German is also noticeable in the varied spelling of other words than the name in tombstone and other inscriptions, especially those found in Bucks Co., Pa. Most of the Leatherman immigrants who signed their names to the ship registers spelled it "Lederman." Those who came from Landau spelled it "Ledterman," the same as did the Bucks Co., Pa. pioneer Jacob Ledterman. Later other forms appeared, especially during the transition from German into English, such as "Läetterman, Lädermann, Letterman, etc., but these were used rarely and were of short duration. The forms that remained in use down through the generations to the present are "Leatherman" the English translation of its original meaning, the modified form "Letherman", and the German form "Lederman", the first being by far the most extensively used.

The Leatherman immigrants to America apparently came mostly from southwestern Germany and a few from Switzerland. Some came from the disputed province, Palatinate, some from Landau a town near the boundary line between Alsace and Germany. An old German guard in the Dept. of Agriculture in Washington, D. C. once told of having known of Ledermans in Hesse. In this vicinity the German Baptist or Dunkard Church originated, the church to which some of the Leatherman immigrants adhered, and to the faith of which have clung countless of their descendants.

There were ten or more pioneer Leatherman immigrants, some of them men with families, some young men, and a couple of young ladies. Not all of these could be traced to their destinations, nor could their records and those of their descendants be found and obtained. Most of these immigrants landed at Philadelphia, Pa. and settled on land in near-by vicinities, in Philadelphia Co. at Germantown and in Bucks Co., but it was not long until they or their children started migrating westward. Some went into Maryland, some into western Virginia, western Pa., and into Kentucky. Their descendants have wandered into nearly every state in the U. S. and into Canada and Alaska.

HANS DEWALT LEATHERMAN

The first Leatherman known to have arrived in America was Hans Dewalt Leatherman accompanied by his family, but the record does not disclose the names of the family members.

According to Egle's Immigrants to Pennsylvania, Hans Dewalt Leatherman was one of about 200 Palatine passengers who arrived at Philadelphia on the ship James Goodwill, David Crocket master, from Rotterdam last from Portsmouth, qualified Sept. 30, 1727. Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, Vol. 17, page 8. First list of foreigners imported.

According to I. Daniel Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants, Hans Dewalt Leteman arrived on ship James Goodwill, about 200 persons. The record otherwise agrees with that of Egle.

Strassburger and Hinke, "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", official lists of persons arriving in the port of Philadelphia, lists as Palatines: Ship James Goodwill, David Crockatt, master, from Rotterdam qualified Sept. 27, 1727, Tewalt Leatherman, 6 in family. Sept. 27, 1727, Hans Depelt Lederman.

Dewald Lederman, warrant of survey for 100 acres of land in Philadelphia Co., Pa., May 19, 1735. Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Vol. 24, page 29.

Since no record of Hans Dewalt Leatherman was found in any other locality, it is supposed that he lived and died in Philadelphia Co., Pa., but no record of his death nor of any will or estate settlement was discovered.

A careful study of available records of land transfers, tax lists, census reports, wills, church records, migrations and locations, claims of kinship, and what not, has resulted in the belief, though unproven, that Daniel, John, Peter, Michael, and possibly Nicholas, may have been sons of Hans DeWalt Leatherman, and that Christian, Henry, Godfrey and Nicholas all of Frederick Co., Md., John and Frederick of Washington Co., Pa., Michael of Maryland and late of Jefferson Co., Ky. probably were his grandsons. Since this cannot be unquestionably substantiated, however, they are chronicled, not as his sons and grandsons, but as heads of separate groups or lineages, regardless of the possibility of their having been near blood relatives. Some of them probably were closely related while others, no doubt, were more distantly connected or not at all.

Those heading the largest of these groups or lineages, in the order in which they are chronicled, are Elder Daniel Leatherman, Godfrey Leatherman, Nicholas Leatherman, Peter Leatherman, and Jacob Ledterman.

The chapter "Colonial and Other Early Records" may be of interest to some of those who seek information concerning the land dealings, taxes, wills, census, and war records of their ancestors.

John (Lederman) Leatherman, d Jan. 1, 1780, m Catharine ————. According to his will there were five children.

Will, John Leatherman, yeoman, Lower Marion, County of Philadelphia, Pa., dated Jan. 29, 1775, probated Feb. 3, 1780. (Record R, 258, 268.) Wife Catharine; children five (names not given); brother Francis. Executors Francis Leatherman and Anthony Levering. Witnesses Jacob Jones and Jacob Beery.

Francis (Lederman) Leatherman, brother to John, d s Feb., 1795; laborer, Philadelphia Co., Pa. His will shows: Francis Lederman, bachelor and laborer, N. Liberties, County of Philadelphia. Will dated Jan. 21, 1795, probated Feb. 10, 1795. (Record X, 130, 139, Philadelphia Wills, 1724-1802, No. 14, alphabetical B.M.B.T.) Collection of the Genealogical Society of Pa.

There seem to have been two sets of these Leatherman in Philadelphia Co., Pa. The three mentioned above, John whose wife was Catharine but not Mary Catharine in his will, his brother Francis, and Michael, all apparently well-to-do. There are also the John whose wife was Mary Catherine, and Francis Joseph, Catholics, and quite poor as shown by the records of their church.

Francis Joseph Lederman and his brother John were very loyal to the church of the Roman Catholics.

ELDER DANIEL LEATHERMAN

The German Baptist or Dunkard Church was founded in 1708 when eight pious souls walked solemnly to the River Eder from Alexander Mack's home at Schwartzenu in Wittgenstein, Germany, and were baptized by triune immersion. It is said that Daniel Leatherman was baptized into that faith by Alexander Mack. In 1719, through an invitation from William Penn, some of these German Baptists came to America and settled at Germantown near Philadelphia, Pa.

Daniel Leatherman, probably a son of the pioneer immigrant Hans Dewalt Leatherman, a native of Germany, likely lived in the German Baptist settlement at Germantown, Pa., for some time before we find him in York Co., Pa., actively engaged in the service of his church. He must have been in the ministry before 1738 since in that year, church records show, he organized the Little Conewago Church in Hanover Township, York Co., Pa., and three years later the Conewago Church was organized at Conewago, 14 miles from York, Pa. When their first minister, George Adam Martin, left, the church was placed in charge of Daniel Leatherman who then ministered to both the Conewago and Little Conewago churches until he removed to Maryland.

Prowell's History of York Co., Pa., in discussing German Baptists, states that the first church of that sect was Conewago Church organized in 1738 in the vicinity of Hanover. Their first preacher was Daniel Leatherman, senior. (Page 137). In 1741 another church was organized six miles east. Their first elder was George Adam Martin who was followed by Daniel Leatherman, Jr., and Nicholas Martin. (Page 137). The annual conference was held in York Co., Pa., in 1789 on the Great Conewago. Among the names of elders and bishops who were present was that of Daniel Leatherman. (Page 138).

In 1753 Daniel Leatherman organized the Beaverdam church in Frederick Co., Md., and lived near it for three years. In 1760, other Dunkards having come to this community, the Middletown Valley church was organized with fifteen members, the leading families being the Leatherman, Grossnickle and Harshman families. Daniel Leatherman seems to have been the first leading minister in this church and a leader among these brethren in the community. The early history of the church was not kept on record. From 1760 to the close of the century the places of worship were the houses and barns of the members. Their first church house was built about 1839 near Harmony. In 1867 a meeting-house was built where the Grossnickle church now stands and was used for worship until 1899 when the present large and commodious church was erected.

Professor J. M. Henry states that Daniel Leatherman served the Little Conewago and Conewago churches until he removed to Maryland where in 1756 he purchased land on the plateau of the Blue Ridge Range near Garfield. His house was of log structure two stories high and was laid off with scrupulous care with a porch to the east. The house was at first chinked and daubed but later weather-boarded. It remained standing, though for many years vacant, until about 1894 when it was destroyed by fire. Professor Henry also stated that Daniel and his family, being frightened by the Indian massacre at Foxville, moved down into the more densely populated valley and located near Rautzahn's Mill where they remained for a number of years before returning to their mountain home.

It is said that Daniel Leatherman wore a long beard which became as white as snow, that he became quite old and feeble and at the time of making his last will and testament his eyes were too dim to read. The old family Bible is said to have revealed that at least three of his children were born after he was seventy years old.

Daniel Leatherman's Will Probated Jan. 31, 1798

"In the Name of God Amen I Daniel Leatherman of Frederick County and State of Maryland being old and somewhat Indisposed and very weak in body but of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding thanks be unto God therefore calling to mind the mortality of my Body And knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows—

Ger Bapt. Farmer.

John was reared on the farm and stayed there with his father until he was 28 years old then began farming for himself on a farm that he rented from his father. He remained on this farm for 10 years then purchased an excellent farm of 153 acres one mile south of Myersville, Md. Later he bought an adjoining farm which he afterwards sold to his oldest son Vernon. He is now living a retired life in Myersville, Md., where he built for himself a beautiful two story brick house. He is known as "Lincoln John" to distinguish him from other Johns and because of his striking resemblance in countenance and stature to Abraham Lincoln. In politics he is a staunch Republican. He has interests in the Farmers' Exchange at Myersville, Md., in the Washington Realty Co. of Washington, D. C., and in a Company Bank in Myersville, Md. He is descended from a direct line of Ger Bapt ministers and is himself a deacon of the Ger Bapt Ch. His great-great-grandfather, Daniel Leatherman, the founder of this branch of the Leatherman family, was an elder and minister of the Ger Bapt Ch, his great-grandfather Peter Leatherman and brother John, his grandfather Jacob the "walking preacher" and his father George all were ministers of the Ger Bapt Ch. Nancy Leatherman, presumably Peter Leatherman's widow, m John Baker (license issued at Frederick, Md., Aug. 30, 1828).

3. Michael Leatherman, b Frederick Co., Md., Jan. 9, 1761, d Washington Co., Pa., Sept. 23, 1811, in the 51st year of his age (tombstone record); m in Washington Co., Pa., Catharine Palmer, b in 1765, d Washington Co., Pa., Apr. 28, 1844, in the 79th year of her age (tombstone record); both lie buried in the family burial ground on the homestead farm.

Michael went to Washington Co., Pa., from Frederick Co., Md., when a young man. In 1792, 193 acres of the original 393.138 acre purchase of Daniel Leatherman was deeded by him to Michael Leatherman. Upon resurvey, after Michael's death, the farm was found to contain 195 acres. The Orphan Court Docket in Dec., 1811, shows that of Michael's children, Catherine, Daniel, Peter and Joseph at that time were minors over 14 years of age and chose their own guardians; Catherine chose Jacob Swinehart, Daniel chose John Leatherman, Peter chose Richard Richardson, and Joseph chose Jonathan Leatherman; Michael, Susannah, Maria and Sarah were minor children less than 14 years of age and the court appointed John Tage and Jacob Huston as their guardians. In March, 1812, upon petition by John (name should be Jacob) Custard and his wife Elizabeth (late Elizabeth Leatherman), John Leatherman, John Swinehart and Mary his wife (late Mary Leatherman), Catherine by her guardian Jacob Swinehart, Daniel Leatherman by his guardian John Leatherman, Peter by his guardian Richard Richardson, Joseph by his guardian Jonathan Leatherman, Michael and Lucy by their guardian Jacob Feester (Huston), Maria Leatherman and Sarah Leatherman by their guardian John Tage, and Catharine the widow, the farm was divided into two parts, one of 105½ acres appraised at $10.50 per acre and the other of 89½ acres appraised at $7.50 per acre. Catharine's will dated Feb. 25, 1843, probated May 4, 1844, West Bethlehem Twp., witnesses Demas M. Leatherman, William Bryan, John Leatherman and Samuel Weir, mentions daughters Elizabeth, Catherine, Magdalena, Maria, Susannah, Sarah; sons John, Michael, Daniel, Peter, Joseph. Since her will mentions a Magdalena but no Mary and the 1811 Orphan Court Docket mentioned a Mary but no Magdalena, it is assumed that Mary and Magdalena are names of the same person, as are also the names Susannah and Lucy. When the oldest son John took over the farm after Catharine's death the quitclaim deed, dated Aug. 1, 1844, was signed by Elizabeth Custer, Mary Swihart, John D. and Catherine Baker, Daniel and Rachel Leatherman, Peter and Elizabeth Leatherman, Joseph and Sally Leatherman, Michael and Hannah Leatherman, George and Susannah Hurless, Maria Hill, Robert and Sarah Guthrie. Ger Bapt. Farmer. Catharine was a doctor and rode horseback to call on her patients. C: Betsy, John, Polly, Catharine, Daniel, Peter, Joseph, Michael, Susannah, Maria, Sarah, two others who d y.

Madden, b Rose Twp., Carroll Co., (at that time Tuscarawas Co.) O., Apr. 25, 1828, d of septicaemia, Warren Twp., Tuscarawas Co., O., Dec. 3, 1898. Peter Leatherman and 1st wife lived in Pa. for a short time after their marriage, then moved to Tuscarawas Co., O., where on Nov. 10, 1818, Peter bought two lots in the village of Leesburgh which was in Tuscarawas Co. until that part of the county was taken off in 1832 to form a part of Carroll Co. On Mar. 6, 1829, he bought the east half of quarter section 25, township 15, range 7, in Tuscarawas Co., O., from John and Catharine Hawk. This land had come to John Hawk by patent under the hand and seal of President James Monroe, Sept. 1, 1823. Peter later bought other farms, in a short time becoming an extensive land owner. Many land transactions are recorded under his name. He acquired over 400 acres in Tuscarawas Co. and an 80 acre farm in Wood Co., O., in what was known as the "Black Swamp". He offered to give this farm to his son Demas if Demas would go there and develop the farm. Having come to Tuscarawas Co., O., during its early history Peter was among the foremost pioneers of this section. For many years he and his family toiled in the wilderness clearing the forest to rear a substantial home and, being industrious people, they accumulated a large and valuable estate. Peter's will, dated Jan. 16, 1871, mentions only his wife Susannah and four sons, Simon, Daniel, William E. and Jonathan. (Will record Vol. 6, page 123) but other records show that he provided well for his older children prior to the making of his will. In politics Peter was a democrat. He and first wife were Dunkards, second wife Meth. Farmer. C: 1st m Jacob, Phoebe, Michael, Debora, Margaret, Simon, Demas, Daniel, Moses, two infants; 2nd m William, Jonathan.

Ch of God. Farmer, Tuscarawas and Wood Counties, O. Shortly after their marriage they went to Wood Co., O., to take over the 80 acre farm which his father had offered to give him if he would develop it. Because of the swampy nature of this part of Ohio at that time there was so much malaria and ague that Demas and family could endure it for only a few years. They returned to Tuscarawas Co., where they settled on another of his father's farms about 6 miles from New Philadelphia. About 9 or 10 years later they decided to return to Wood Co. and try again. This time they withstood the difficulties and remained on the Wood Co. farm. Demas was one of the charter members of Kiger Post No. 735 of the G.A.R. chartered Mar. 10, 1891. Catharine is a sister to Elizabeth Custer's husband, Joseph Miller, and to Peter Custer's second wife, Sarah Miller. His will, dated Apr. 29, 1881, probated Oct., 1881, shows that his heirs and legatees were Catharine Leatherman, widow, George Leatherman, Cyrus Leatherman, Jackson Leatherman, Henry Leatherman, Joseph Leatherman. Catharine's will, dated Jan. 28, 1908, gave all her property to her brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces. Deeds on record show that Joseph Leatherman of Allen Co., O., bought a quarter section of land there Dec. 26, 1849, and that Joseph Leatherman and wife Sarah Leatherman of Licking Co., O., sold this same quarter section, the west half Sept. 23, 1850, and the east half Apr. 8, 1854. Farmer, Licking Co., O., near the village of Perryton, which was then called Elizabethtown. C: George, Cyrus, Jack, Henry, Josie.

According to some of his descendants he m Sarah Hawkins. It is possible that Sarah may have been a second wife. Sept. 10, 1855, George bought 109.87 acres of land in the northwestern part of Muskingum Co., O., not far from his father's farm in Licking Co., O., paying $1,500.00 for it. He sold this same farm for $1,200.00 on Jan. 1, 1857. This may have been the approximate time of his removal from Ohio. After leaving Ohio he lived near Versailles, Mo. He made two trips into the California gold fields. C: George, Demas, Frank, Henry, Well, Ed, Lizzie.
6. George Converse Leatherman, b Licking Co., O., Mar. 13, 1848, d Liberal, Kans., Apr. 19, 1923; m Batavia, Ia., Apr. 16, 1875, Sarah Elizabeth McCleary, b Batavia, Ia.,

May 1, 1855, d Loup City, Nebr., July 9, 1911; both buried in Moon Cemetery, known also as Sunny Slope Cemetery, Loup City, Sherman Co., Nebr. Ger Bapt. Farmer, trader, near Loup City, Nebr.

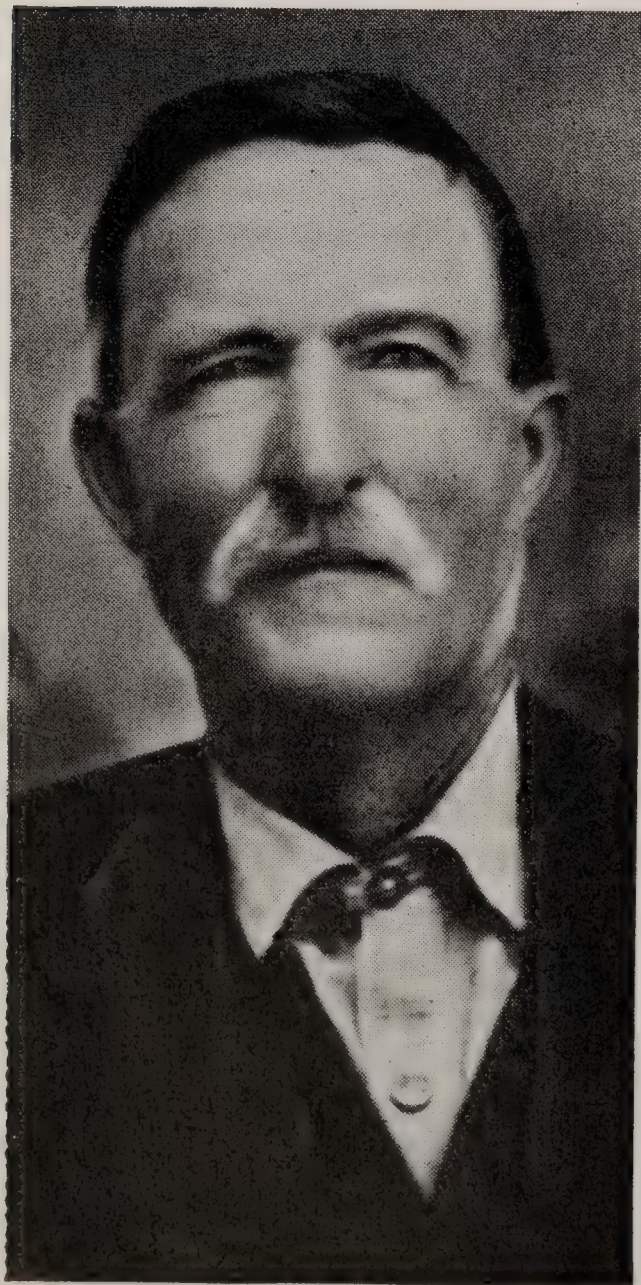

When George was a small boy his parents and their family moved to Iowa where George grew to manhood, and was married at Batavia where three of their six children were born. In 1883, by means of a covered wagon drawn by horses instead of oxen, George removed his household goods to Sherman Co., Nebr. When he arrived at Grand Island, Nebr., he had homestead papers drawn up for a 160 acre plat lying 62 miles farther to the northwest. This was 12½ miles from Loup City the present county seat of Sherman Co., Nebr. On the 160 acre farm he built a rude one-room sod house covered with a thatched roof made of brush, tar, paper, and straw alternately layered. His wife and three children went later on the railway train to Grand Island and waited there in a hotel until all was ready for them and George came after them. When he went to Grand Island to get his family he had only three cents with which to pay the hotel proprietor who told him to pay when it would be convenient for him to do so. The daughter Jennie, then three years old, remembers a few incidents ere leaving Batavia, Iowa, and during their journey to Nebr. She remembers well receiving a doll from Santa Claus when at Batavia, Ia., and still has the doll. She also remembers that the seats in the railroad cars were placed along the sides of the car, the side walls serving as a back for the seats, and that her uncle Eaph got stuck in the mud on the way to the depot.

The father was able to cope with the times by freighting between Loup City and Grand Island. This helped him obtain the lumber needed for a better roof on his sod house. The mother, of course, did her part with her garden, chickens, and ducks even to the feathers from the ducks for the covers needed to keep the family warm. They also had access to wild fruit found along the streams. Wild game and wolves gave them exciting moments in their pioneer life especially when the coyotes or wolves dashed into the domestic flocks. Even the pesky grasshoppers did their part to make prairie life more strenuous. The blizzards of snow for several days in succession caused much anxiety for the stock, the neighbors, and the children at school. Sometimes the teacher would hurry the children to a nearby home and at other times would keep them in the sod schoolhouse until the storm abated.

Mr. Leatherman was a trader more than he was a farmer. At times he went to the neighboring territory of Wyoming, bought horses, cattle, and sheep and brought them to Nebraska to sell at a profit. He was a courageous pioneer and neighbor. It is stated that at one time when diphtheria infested a neighbor's home and four of the five children died and people were afraid to go in, he made coffins for them and carried the little bodies, two at a time, 2½ miles to the cemetery and laid them away. He would change his clothes upon arriving home to avoid infecting his own children with the disease. Such deeds show his character.

In 1918, seven years after his wife died, George moved to Liberal, Kans., where he died in his new home. He had united with the Chr Ch when a young man 21 years of age. C: George, Jennie, True, Frank, Lizzie, Cora.

  4. Michael Leatherman, b Washington Co., Pa., Jan. 16, 1799, d Allen Co., O., July 22, 1866; m Washington Co., Pa., Dec. 25, 1820, Hannah Oller, b in Pa., Sept. 19, 1801, d Allen Co., O., Apr. 1, 1886; both buried in Ridge cemetery. Teacher, farmer, surveyor. Michael, being a very studious man, took up didactic studies in the literature of his time and became a successful school teacher, his reputation extending far beyond his county. In the spring of 1835 he and his family trailed from Washington Co., Pa., to Allen Co., O., through the wilderness which was so dense in places that they had to cut their way through the brush. On July 25, 1835, Michael bought from Robert Lucas, governor of Ohio, 120 acres of land in Jackson Twp., Allen Co., O. These lands had been granted by the United States to the State of Ohio under an Act to aid the State of Ohio in extending the Miami Canal from Dayton, O., to Lake Erie and to aid in the construction of the canal. Michael also received another tract of land in Auglaize Twp., Allen Co., O., by grant direct from the United States under the hand of Andrew Jackson, dated Feb. 25, 1836. Other deeds on record show that he transacted other purchases and sales of farm land and town lots in this locality. His education and knowledge of political matters fitted him for public service and soon he came into popular favor. He was elected as township trustee and was made a Justice of the Peace. The Allen Co. History states that he was the first Probate Judge of the county, and served in that capacity for 14 years, was chosen in 1837 as Allen Co. commissioner, in 1840 as county surveyor, elected in 1845 as state representative, and was a speaker in 1854

at a meeting to suppress slavery. It is said that he held the position of joint surveyor of Allen and Auglaize Counties for 12 consecutive years and that he laid out the city of Lima. Oct. 2, 1861, he enlisted in the army with Co., F, 4th O.V.C. and was in some very hard service in Ky., Tenn., and Ala. He was honorably discharged before the end of the war because of his advanced age and his weakened constitution. He returned to his farm which he had cleared and made into one of the finest farms in the county and there spent his remaining days which were destined to be comparatively few. He was one of the most honored and beloved men of his county and state: Dunk Ch. C: Henry, infant dau, Hiram, Michael, Sarah, Adam, John, Elizabeth, Tom, Catherine, Hannah.

Dunk. Farmer or rancher as it is called in the West, Humboldt Co., Nev. Relatives recall that he also owned gold mines in Nev. and Calif. and at times ran a caravan, taking a load of salt East and returning West with other goods. The family moved West in 1859 in wagons drawn by oxen, the journey taking six months. Mrs. Guthrie and dau Florence, then nine years old, were the only women folks in the train. Florence found the trip quite exciting, especially since the Indians were on the war path several times, and when they succeeded in killing the travelers they dined off their stock and burned their wagons. The family lived in Calif. for a time but finally settled in Nev. C: Florence, Jane, Sam, Will, Melissa, Carrie, Frank, James, Charles, Arthur, Hattie.
6. Florence Leonore Guthrie, b Allen Co., O., Dec. 6, 1850, d Salt Lake City, Utah, July 19, 1927; m at the Sonoma Ranch, Humboldt Co., Nev., July 29, 1871, Charles Stetson Varian, b Dayton, O., Sept. 10, 1846, d Salt Lake City, Utah, Mar. 25, 1922, of acute bronchitis. Mr. Varian, a pioneer of Nev. and Utah, left his home in Ohio when 20 years old. He went to Calif. and after a short stay there removed to Nev. to Paradise Valley and a little later to Unionville which was then the county seat of Humboldt Co. Not long after his arrival at Unionville he was elected county treasurer. In 1870 he was elected county clerk, and in 1872 was chosen as a state senator and re-elected in 1874. At that time he resided in Winnemucca, Nev. He was admitted to the bar while yet a young man and became a very prominent attorney. During the administrations of Presidents Grant, Hayes and Garfield, or from 1876 to 1882, Mr. Varian was United States attorney for Nev., and in 1882 was elected to the legislature from Washoe Co. and became speaker of the House. When he moved to Utah in Nov., 1884, he was quickly recognized as a potent factor in the legal profession. He was U. S. district attorney for Utah, 1884 to 1886, and a member of the first Utah house of representatives. In 1895 he was a delegate from Salt Lake City to the constitutional convention and helped shape the document which, when adopted, made Utah a state. He was a long time member of the Utah Bar association and its president for 7 years. Because of his thorough knowledge of mining and irrigation law he became known throughout the entire intermountain region. He was also a prominent mason. He was made Master Mason in Winnemucca, Nev., Apr. 17, 1875, and of Argenta Lodge No. 3 of Utah in 1889. Also Royal Arch Mason and Knight Templar. He was kindly, courteous, broad-minded, and charitable, and always held to his conviction of right and duty. C: Bert, Miles, Charles, Philip.

  3. Rev. John Leatherman, likely the youngest of Elder Daniel Leatherman's sons, since he was the last son mentioned in Elder Daniel's will, was b near Myersville, Frederick Co., Md., 1776, d Kosciusko Co., Ind., Feb. 21, 1867, at the age of 90 years, 8 months, 21 days (tombstone record); m Frederick Co., Md., Nov. 20, 1798 (marriage record) Catharine "Caty" Miller who d in Kosciusko Co., Ind., Sept. 16, 1850, at the age of 73 years, 2 months, 20 days (tombstone record); both lie buried in Brumbaugh Cemetery near Gravelton, Kosciusko Co., Ind. When a young man John moved to Tuscarawas Co., O., where the family lived for 30 years and where he was ordained to the ministry of the Dunkard Church. Deeds on record show that on Feb. 17, 1812, he bought a lot in New Philadelphia, O., which lot was sold at sheriff's sale to satisfy a damage claim against the county commissioners who owned the lot. On Apr. 20, 1812, he bought a tract of land of 151 acres more or less for $453.00 from Samuel Lappin in the Township of One Leg, Tuscarawas Co., O. This farm had come to Samuel Lappin Nov. 14, 1807, by patent granted by President Thomas Jefferson. John and Caty Leatherman sold this same farm on Apr. 7, 1836, for $2,300.00. (One Leg Township later formed a part of Carroll Co. and the name was changed to Orange.) In the fall of 1836 John Leatherman and Andrew Sheely followed Jacob Brumbaugh, who had gone in the spring of 1836, to Jefferson Twp., Kosciusko Co., Ind., and settled on sections one and two, about four miles west of Milford. In 1837 these early settlers organized the Dunkard congregation there and worshipped in the houses of the neighborhood. Later the Rev. John Leatherman granted to the township a plat of land for school and church purposes. By 1854 worship was held in the schoolhouse on this plot. The congregation became known as the Turkey Creek Church. Rev. John Leatherman was later elected to the eldership of his church in which he was a lowly leader. He was elder in company with Elder John Miller and Elder Daniel Creps and was elected or appointed as a member of long service committee. During his advanced age near the close of his life he attended church conferences in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland, his last attendance being in Maryland which gave him the opportunity of once again seeing his people in his old home community. After his wife Catharine died he made his home with his son Joseph who lived on a part of the farm near Milford, Ind. He was known as "Old Johnny Leatherman". Ger Bapt. Minister, farmer. C: Daniel, Sally, Catharine, Nancy, Elizabeth, Joseph, Isaac, Polly, John, Hannah.

4. Daniel Leatherman, b probably in Frederick Co., Md., late in 1799 or early in 1800, d Allen Co., O., in 1850. His wife Sophia Leatherman was appointed Oct. 31, 1850, as administratrix of his estate; m by Robert Meck, J.P., Tuscarawas Co., O., Oct. 27, 1822, Sophia Schwalley, dau of Daniel Schwalley. Sept. 14, 1832, Daniel Leatherman and wife Sophia sold to Benjamin Williams 34 acres of a quarter section of land in Tuscarawas Co., O., the deed being signed by Dan'l Leatherman and Sophia (her mark) Leatherman. Apr. 7, 1834, Daniel and Sophia sold the remaining portion of the same quarter section to Isaac McGregor. This land had been granted unto George Custard by the President of the United States by patent bearing the date Jan. 30, 1811, and was deeded by George Custard and wife Catharine to Jonathan Custard on Dec. 9, 1819, and was deeded to Daniel Leatherman, Apr. 2, 1832, by Jonathan Custard and wife Rachel, and witnessed by George Cotner and Mathew Croft. A deed, recorded in Tuscarawas Co., O., states that Daniel Leatherman and wife Sophia, heirs at law of Daniel Schwalley, quit claimed to Charles Schwalley, Nov. 9, 1843, all title and interest in undivided ninth part of approximately 100 acres of land. This deed was signed by Dan'l Leatherman and Sophia (her mark) Leatherman and was witnessed by Lawrence Hartshorn and John Leatherman. Daniel was a Dunk preacher and a farmer. After his death Sophia m as 2nd wife, Josephus Hunt interests in Allen Co., O., including his share in his father's 160-acre farm, and took up land and settled in Paulding Co., O. Many land transactions are recorded in Paulding Co., O., under his name. At the time of his death he was the owner of several farms, his home farm lying by the Miami and Erie Canal. Among his other possessions were a store and postoffice, a threshing outfit and a canal boat. His will, dated June 23, 1881, six days before his death, shows that he was a man of diligence and forethought and that he had accumulated considerable property of which he disposed intelligently, not forgetting his books which he wished divided among his children, nor his old horse Dock that he requested be kept on the farm during the horse's natural lifetime. Daniel was a soldier in the Civil War, having enlisted in the hundred day service, and was stationed at Nashville, Tenn. A letter concerning war matters, written by a brother to the folks at home, indicated that Daniel was quite disappointed and sick of soldiering. He served out his enlisted time then returned home. Luth. Farmer and merchant. C: Tillie, John, Jake, Libbie, Samuel, Joseph, Charles, Nettie, Pete, Philip, Annie, Will.

John J. Hauss, an old resident of St. Mary's, O., who had become acquainted with Daniel Leatherman during his boyhood while working on the Miami and Erie Canal, in his "Reminiscences of Bygone Days", tells the following of Paulding Co. and of Daniel Leatherman:

"Paulding Co. was considered the wildest county in Ohio. The great trouble in settling Paulding Co. was the immense amount of water and fallen timber which stopped the flow of water. The early settlers were starved and drowned out. The ground was so wet that they could not raise anything. An old surveyor said: 'Water! water! tall timber and not a blade of grass growing nor a bird to be seen.' A resident said: 'We can raise two crops on this land.' A stranger asked how and so he replied: 'One of ice and one of frogs.' I knew a man by the name of Daniel Leatherman who entered 640 acres of land at $1.25 an acre. He offered to sell any part of it for $2.00 an acre. When this land was reclaimed and drained it sold for $200.00 an acre." It might be added that Daniel Leatherman always had a pleasant greeting for young Hauss when he was passing Daniel's farm and was so well liked by the lad that he always called him "Uncle Dan" though in no way related nor even acquainted with Daniel's family.

P., Oct. 29, 1854, Alvira Allison, b in Ohio, Feb. 27, 1836, d Aug. 7, 1884, killed by a train while she was crossing the tracks at Lima, O. Mr. Leatherman was a Civil War soldier, Co. A, 118 Reg., O.V.I. He enlisted at Lima, O., Aug. 9, 1862, was mustered into service at Cincinnati, O., Sept. 12, 1862 and served with the Army of the Ohio in Tenn., Ga., N. C., Ala., etc. His war record, in possession of his dau Mrs. Ida Tharp, gives the place and date of 21 battles in which he participated. Having been asked, after he had been in the service for some time, how he liked soldiering he replied in a letter to his brother Jonathan that he liked it about as well as he had expected. Quoting from the same letter: "It is not a very agreeable thing to go into battle and see your comrades falling around you. I have seen the true boys of our army lying over the battlefield by hundreds and it is anything but a handsome scene. I have been in eleven hard battles and I have run some very narrow chances." Out of 210 men who went into a certain charge which he said lasted about five minutes, "111 men of us came out uninjured. I thought it rained lead there." It took nearly two weeks for his regiment to go from Clifton, Tenn. to Washington, D. C. They left Clifton on Jan. 16 with no snow in sight there, went by boat down the Tennessee River to the Ohio River then up the Ohio as far as Cincinnati where they found about six inches of snow on the ground. They left Cincinnati by way of railway cars, went through Dayton and Columbus, O. to Bellaire where they crossed the Ohio River and continued the journey in railway cars to Washington where they arrived on Jan. 27. After about two weeks stay in Washington where they were outfitted with new clothing and were given four months pay, they went by boat by way of the Potomac River and the Atlantic Ocean to the mouth of the Cape Fear River in N. C. and the next morning started on the march for Fort Anderson through sand and cyprus swamps, arriving in time to help capture Fort Anderson where they encountered what they called a "Bumble bee's nest." Joseph was never wounded. He received his discharge at Columbus, O. June 23, 1865. On Feb. 26, 1896 he was admitted to the Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Quincy, Ill. where he died in the hospital, Mar. 16, 1899 and is buried in the Home cemetery there. U B Ch. Mr. and Mrs. Magee met death by gas poison in their home. On Wednesday morning when neighbor ladies noticed Tuesday evening's newspaper lying on the Magee porch they began to investigate and saw through a window, the body of Mr. Magee lying on a lounge. The chief of police was notified and when a couple of detectives, sent to the Magee home to investigate, opened the back door with a skeleton key they were met by a wave of gas that nearly stifled them. Mr. Magee had apparently been lying on the lounge reading, as his spectacles and Monday evening's newspaper were lying on the table beside him. He had taken off his shirt and shoes. Mrs. Magee's body was found in bed in a huddled position, her face nearly hidden in the bed covers. She evidently had retired after sorting the household linens which lay in neat piles on a bed in an adjoining room. Her husband's night clothes were laid out for him and the light was burning. Two canaries whose cages usually hung in the dining room were found in Mrs. Magee's bedroom, their cages covered for the night, and both birds dead. On Tuesday morning, the day before the tragedy, a neighbor had noticed Mr. Magee climbing a ladder at his home. As far as known this was the last that either of the couple had been seen alive. ## GODFREY LEATHERMAN

It is alleged that Godfrey Leatherman's father and two brothers whose names were not mentioned, came from Weisenburg, Germany in 1725 and settled near Lancaster, Pa. where Godfrey was born and reared on his father's farm. This report, however, could not be substantiated since a search of the records revealed no Leatherman immigration in 1725 nor at any time prior to the arrival of the pioneer immigrant Hans Dewalt Leatherman on the ship James Goodwill, Sept. 27, 1727. Neither was any record found to verify the dwelling in Lancaster Co., Pa. The name Leatherman is not found on record in that county either during the time of the Revolutionary War nor in the 1790 census. It seems improbable that Godfrey's father could have owned and lived on a farm in Lancaster Co., Pa., long enough to rear a son there without having his name appear in a county tax list or some other record. Jacob Lederman is the only one of the name found recorded in Lancaster Co. His name appears in a warrant for 50 acres of land July 27, 1751 but since his name does not appear in the county tax list it may be assumed that his stay in the county was very short. Granting that Godfrey could and may have been born in that county, it seems highly probable that his removal to some other locality took place while he was still quite young. At any rate the first authentic record the authors of this work have of Godfrey Leatherman appears in Frederick Co., Md. in deeds of transfer of lands as early as Mar. 12, 1788 and again in 1796, 1801, 1804 and 1806. (See the list of land transfers, Frederick Co., Md., in the chapter on Colonial and other early records.) A traditional report is current that Daniel Leatherman and three brothers came over together and that two of the brothers settled in Frederick Co., Md. but again the names of the brothers were not given. It is possible that Godfrey Leatherman's father may have been one of those brothers of Elder Daniel Leatherman. Some of the descendants of both Godfrey and Elder Daniel Leatherman claim more or less blood relationship with one another. This may have arisen, however, from the fact that there has been considerable intermarriage among the members of the two lines of descent. After an extensive study, made in the attempt to determine whether the Leatherman people who settled in the same vicinity at approximately the same time were connected by blood, it is the opinion of the compilers that all the early Leatherman settlers of Maryland were near blood relatives. Though direct evidence of this is meager, there are a number of reasons on which this opinion is based. Since Godfrey Leatherman seems to have been about a generation younger than Elder Daniel Leatherman and since Godfrey's father and Elder Daniel may have been brothers, Godfrey Leatherman is here considered as of the third generation.

3. Godfrey or Godfred Leatherman, b in Lancaster Co., Pa., according to the History of Frederick Co., Md. It is said that Feb. 10, 1748 was the date of his birth, but this has not been verified. The time of his death is given as in the fall of 1836 though final distribution of his estate was not made until 1841. He d in Frederick Co., Md. and his remains lie buried in the graveyard on the old Leatherman farm now owned by Charles Harshman. (Presumably this farm is the original Maryland homestead of Godfrey or his father.) He m Mary Ann ..... who d likely in 1846. One report gives her maiden name as Miller, another as Mary Ricker. We have no way of verifying either name. Godfrey seems to have migrated to Frederick Co., Md. when a young man. He settled on a farm in the northern part of Middletown Valley where he engaged in farming and lumbering. The U. S. census for Frederick Co., Md. shows that in 1790 his family consisted of two sons under 16 years of age and four daughters. After his death the fifth and final account of his property was made Sept. 14, 1841 by his son Daniel as administrator. The names of the heirs to whom distribution was made are: Mary Ann, the wife; John, dec'd; Elizabeth Craver, dec'd.; Frederick, dec'd.; Susanna Geasy, dec'd.; Mary Ludy; Catharine Warrenfels; Magdalene Maugins, dec'd.; Daniel; Jacob; Sarah Maun, dec'd.; Rebecca Summers. The names of these children are probably given in order of their birth. After the death of Mary Ann, his widow, final settlement of her estate was made Aug. 3, 1846 by the youngest son Jacob as administrator. Distribution was made to: Daniel Leatherman, a son; Jacob Leatherman, a son; Mary Ludy, a dau; Catharine Warrenfeltz, a dau; Margaret Summers, a dau; children of Susan Geasy or Geesy, dau, viz.: David, Jacob, Daniel, William, Elizabeth and Catherine Geesy, Mary Derr, Susan Smith; Children of Elizabeth Craver, dau. viz.: Mary, Margaret, Peter, John, Elizabeth and Susan Craver; children of Magdalena Maugins, dau, viz.: Susanna, Rezin, Daniel, and Elizabeth Maugins; children of John Leatherman, son, viz.: John, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Delila, Eve, Fayette and Mary Leatherman; children of Frederick Leatherman, son, viz.: Daniel, Mary Ann, Christian, Frederick, Sarah, Joseph and Conrad; children of Sarah Main or Maun, dau, viz.: George, Susanna, Mary Ann, John, William and Francis Edward Main or Maun. According to these distributions, eleven children grew to maturity six of whom died before the distributions were made. C: John, Elizabeth, Frederick, Susanna, Mary, Catherine, Magdalena, Daniel, Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca.

4. John Leatherman, b likely in Frederick Co., Md., probably about 1784, d near Tiffin, Seneca Co., O., early in 1841 as shown by the various documents pertaining to the settlement of his estate by John Souder who was appointed as administrator, Feb. 25, 1841, after the widow Eve Leatherman had declined to serve. John m Mary Eve Gaugh in Frederick Co., Md., license issued Nov. 13, 1808. John and family moved to Seneca Co., O., about 1834 or perhaps earlier, and established their home in Clinton Twp., near Tiffin. Inn keeper and lawyer. A great-granddaughter recalls hearing Eve Zeis, John's dau, speak of often having taken charge of the inn while her father was out attending to some law business. When this home was sold after John's death, the deed, dated Feb. 17, 1852, was signed by the widow Eve Leatherman, Rebecca Crall and Henry Crall, Elizabeth Parr and John Parr, Eve Cise and William Cise, James L. Leatherman and Christina Leatherman, Mary Ann Leatherman. C: John, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Delilah, Eve, Fayette, Mary.
5. John F. Leatherman, b Frederick Co., Md., m Seneca Co., O., By J. V. Jones, J.P., Oct. 2, 1855, Matlana Hisel. On June 21, 1851 he gave his mother a deed for 6 acres of land for a consideration of $50.00 which deed presumably covered his interest in his father's home. No further trace of him was found in Seneca Co., O. and it is not known where he went when he left Seneca Co., O. nor whether he had any children.
5. Rebecca Leatherman, b Frederick Co., Md., m 1st David Patridge who d before May, 1841, as shown by papers regarding the settlement of her father's estate and the - estate of David Patridge; m 2nd Henry Crall. Rebecca had children but her descendants could not be located.

5. Elizabeth Leatherman, b Frederick Co., Md., m Seneca Co., O., by John J. Beilharz, M.G., Mar. 6, 1845, John Parr. Relatives say that Elizabeth had children but their names and location are not known.
  5. Delilah Leatherman, b Frederick Co., Md., m 1st John Decline; m 2nd John Reichard; m 3d Tiffin, O., by J. H. Leidy, J.P., Dec. 31, 1878, George Clevidence. At one time when enraged, George shot his wife but not fatally. Both died natural deaths. It is claimed that Delilah was a woman whom few people liked. No issue.

4. Mary Leatherman, b near Wolfsville, Frederick Co., Md., Dec. 3, 1785, d in the home of her son Daniel Warrenfeltz near Wolfsville, Md., June 27, 1879; m 1st (license issued Dec. 13, 1809 at Hagerstown, Md.), John Warrenfeltz, son of Jacob and Hannah (Hartman) Warrenfeltz*, b Ellerton, Md., Aug. 21, 1785, d near Wolfsville, Md., Oct. 15, 1828, from an accidental gun shot wound received while out coon hunting. He had treed and shot a coon which lodged in the tree. When he had climbed the tree to get the coon he was shot by another hunting party who, dimly seeing him moving about in the tree and not knowing of his presence, mistook him for a coon and shot him. Mr. Warrenfeltz owned a fine farm of 130 acres one mile west of Wolfsville, Md. which he acquired from his father-in-law Godfrey Leatherman. On this farm he built a large two-story stone house and other farm buildings. Farmer and lumberman. Mary m 2nd (license issued at Hagerstown, Md., Mar. 13, 1831), Jacob Ludy, a near-by neighbor, who d in 1872; farmer. C: 1st m Frederick, Catherine, Daniel, Jacob, John, Sarah, Lanie, Margaret, Josiah, Adam; 2nd m no issue. The order of birth of Jacob, John, Sarah, and Margaret was not reported except that they all range in age between Daniel and Josiah.

The following extract from a sketch of the life of Josiah Leatherman Warrenfells, son of John and Mary (Leatherman) Warrenfells, and the records of Josiah and his family were contributed by Josiah's grandson, Dr. Shannon P. Warrenfells, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Near the village of Wolfsville, Frederick Co., Md., on the first day of June, 1826, to John Warrenfels and Mary

* "No great distance beyond the northern bank of the river 'Potomac' and near Ellerton, Frederick Co., Md., may be found the grave stone of the first 'Warrenfels' in America 'province of Maryland.' A 'Leatherman' even then, 'in revolutionary days' was neighbor to him before the families intermarried." Jacob Warrenfels, the founder of the Warrenfels family in America, came from Switzerland. He was born in Central Europe, Feb. 21, 1731, d Ellerton, Md., Sept. 12, 1807; his wife Hannah (Hartman) Warrenfels was b in Central Europe, Oct. 1754, d Ellerton, Md., Nov. 6, 1815.

Leatherman, a son was born. They bestowed upon him the name of Josiah Leatherman. Josiah, as he came to be known, was their ninth child, a fifth son.

The 15th of Oct., 1827, just a few short months* after Josiah's birth, as a result of an accidental gun wound, he suddenly became fatherless, and his mother a widow frightened with the care of nine children, and one yet to be born some six months later, this fatherless babe Mary named Adam. Frederick, her eldest, just passed eighteenth* birthday, Catherine, not quite 16 years, Daniel, a month short of 14 years old, the three must be her mainstay in wresting a living from the soil of their farm.

Mary, fortunately, succeeded in keeping her family together for more than two years, then at Hagerstown, Md., a marriage license to Jacob Ludy and Mary Leatherman Warrenfels, the 13th day of Mar., 1831. Josiah no longer was fatherless and Mary's fears for the future of her family were allayed, as she moved over to the home of Jacob Ludy, perhaps a quarter mile distant. And here Mary Leatherman spent more than 40 years of her long and busy life of ninety* years and some months, or until the life of Jacob Ludy came to a close in the year of 1872. No children were born to this union.

By the time of the passing of her second husband her son Daniel had bought his father's old home and was living in the two story rock house John Warrenfels himself had built after acquiring the farm from his father-in-law, Godfrey Leatherman. So now, when his mother was once more a widow, Daniel cared for her at his own fire-side, until the ending of her life took place on June 27, 1879, some 7 years after the death of Jacob Ludy. Thus was Daniel able to comfort and cherish his mother during both her first and second widowhood.

Josiah long since had acquired a wife and children and was busy in the care and education thereof.

- ered wagon. They sold all their possessions except what they could take along in the wagon. When they arrived at their destination they were grieved to learn that one of their cherished possessions, the family Bible, was missing; they did not know whether they left it behind or lost it on the way. At first they settled near Versailles where Rosanna died. Later Frederick moved into the village of Beamsville. His sister Margaret kept house for him for a while after his wife died, but later he put the children out to be reared. At his death there were left 4 brothers, 2 sisters, 1 son, 4 daughters, 25 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. Ger Ref. Wagon maker. Dr. Leatherman was b and reared on his father's farm. After passing through the country school he entered Roanoke College at Salem, Va. After several years in college he began to study medicine with his brother Marshall who was then located at Thurmont, Md. In 1884 he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, Md., completing his course and graduating in 1886 with a class numbering 186. Returning to Thurmont, Md., he went into partnership with his brother, Dr. Marshall Leatherman. Four years later the partnership was dissolved and Dr. D. I. Leatherman entered a large field at Williamsburg, Pa., a manufacturing city with great opportunities for medical and surgical work. After marriage his wife, also a college graduate, took so great an interest in his work that she decided to study medicine. She entered the Women's Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., and graduated with the class of 1895. Upon her return to Williamsburg she found plenty of office work and many calls for her assistance. After some years of strenuous work they decided it was time for a little relaxation. In 1901 they took a vacation, traveling extensively in the United States. They returned to active work and in 1909 sold their Williamsburg practice and moved back to Maryland. During the latter part of 1909 they visited a number of Old World countries. Upon returning to the U. S. A. they located at Baltimore, Md., where they took post-graduate work in private clinics and at Johns Hopkins Hospital for over a year while their two sons Robert and Theodore attended the city schools. ## NICHOLAS LEATHERMAN

Soon after the close of the Revolutionary War Nicholas Leatherman and Lewis Roderick or Rotruck, brothers-in-law, Nicholas having married Roderick's sister, both of German parentage, moved from Frederick Co., Md., where both were born and reared, to Hampshire Co., Va. Lewis Roderick lived in Va. for nine years then moved into Ohio but Nicholas Leatherman stayed and settled on a farm between Burlington and Headsville in what is now Mineral Co., W. Va.

Washington Co., Md., of which Hagerstown is the county seat, was formed from Frederick Co., Md., in 1777. Hampshire Co., Va., became Hampshire Co., W. Va., in 1861, when W. Va. separated from Va. Mineral Co., W. Va., was formed from Hampshire Co., W. Va., in 1866. *

It is possible and highly probable that Nicholas Leatherman was a blood relative of both Elder Daniel Leatherman and of Godfrey Leatherman. The belief that they were so connected seems to be current among some of the living descendants of Nicholas Leatherman.

From land transfers recorded in Frederick Co., Md., and in Hampshire Co., W. Va., it appears that Nicholas and his family moved from Md. to Va. some time in 1784, his land in Frederick Co., Md., having been sold Apr. 28, 1784, and Aug. 10, 1784, he bought 185 acres from Peter Neau, part of tract No. 12 and part of Patterson Creek Manor, and 331 acres from Okey Johnson, all of tract No. 11 on Patterson Creek.

Nicholas Leatherman, b and reared near Hagerstown, Md., d Hampshire Co., Va., 1790, at an advanced age; m ——— Roderick, some say her given name was Susie, of Frederick Co., Md., d Hampshire Co., Va.; the remains of both lie buried in the family burial plat on their farm between Headsville and Burlington, in what is now Mineral Co., W. Va. This burial ground has long since become known as the Biser cemetery. The farm is now owned by George Biser. C: Daniel, Peter, Joseph, Lewis, John, Abraham, Nicholas, Catherine, Hannah.*

4. Daniel Leatherman, b in Maryland, 1774, d Jan. 10, 1853, aged 78 years, 10 months, 9 days; m Catherine Rawlings, one of six heirs of Benjamin Rawlings, b 1781, d Sept. 29, 1854, aged 72 years, 11 months, 25 days. The land transfer records in Hampshire Co., W. Va., show a deed dated June 10, 1806, from Daniel Stover to Daniel Leatherman for 96 acres and 29 poles of land on Patterson Creek adjoining Manor line, part of two adjoining tracts of 140 and 170 acres respectively. Daniel Stover was a brother-in-law of Daniel Leatherman, Stover's wife being Daniel Leatherman's sister, Catharine Leatherman. C: John, Benjamin, Susan.

* The exact order of the birth of these children could not be determined. Catharine and Hannah were probably older than some of their brothers.

5. Elijah Leatherman.

There was an Elijah Leatherman and a sister Marinda who were of the same age as the grandchildren of Nicholas Leatherman. Elijah's living descendants seem to be uncertain of the name of his father and of his relation to Nicholas. Although a full investigation was not possible, it appears from information presented, that he is a grandson of Nicholas Leatherman and the same Lige or Elijah reported as the son of Lewis Leatherman, and is here chronicled as such.

According to the brief report on Lewis Leatherman, Elijah m ——— Roberts and according to Elijah's descendants, he m Elizabeth——; the natural conclusion being that he m Elizabeth Roberts; both are dec'd.   4. John Leatherman, m Susanna _____. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to the maiden name of Susanna. The more positive claim seems to favor the name Susanna Fink, a sister of Elizabeth Fink, wife of John's brother Nicholas Leatherman. The name Susanna High was also suggested.

Deeds recorded in Hampshire Co., W. Va.: May 26, 1821, John Leatherman and Nicholas Leatherman together bought three tracts of land from John High and wife Mary High, the first tract containing 213 acres, the second 205 acres, the third adjoining the other two (acreage not stated). Feb. 11, 1822, John Leatherman bought from Benjamin Rawlings' six heirs (one of the heirs being Catherine Rawlings, wife of Daniel Leatherman) undivided parts of 260 acres. July 4, 1829, John Leatherman and wife Susanna deeded to Nicholas Leatherman and wife Elizabeth 281 acres by survey and conveyed to John Leatherman by Nicholas Leatherman by deed of even date, this being part of the land conveyed to John Leatherman and Nicholas Leatherman by John High and Mary Ann, his wife, and situated on the head waters of Mill Creek. Robert, who was employed in the mines, went into the basement to fill a powder flask from a keg of blasting powder, bought shortly before, for the next day's work. It was thought that the carbon light which he was carrying may have fallen into the open powder keg causing the explosion. The basement room was badly shattered and several large holes were blown through the sides and floor of the house. The boy was removed to the hospital immediately after first aid was rendered by Dr. Skillings but the burns about his face and body were so severe that he could not long survive.

Pennsylvania Archives—Pensioners of Revolution Serving from Pa.

Michael Leatherman, residing in Jefferson Co., Ky., but inscribed on Pa. pension roll under Act of Mar. 18, 1818, Pa. line, 1777 to 1780. Pension granted June 29, 1830 at age of 80. Died July 6, 1831. Vol. 23, page 560.

Michael Leatherman and his wife Margaret made declaration before the court, May, 1815, of having bequeathed a tract of land to Jacob, their son, and his heirs.

Michael Leatherman applied for pension in Jefferson Co., Ky. on May 3, 1830 and stated that he was 77 years of age. That he was born and raised in Maryland. That he enlisted in 1776 for one year and 8 months in the army of the United States in Maryland. That John Gerger, brother of Colonel Frederick Gerger, was also raised in said state, and in a day or two after the enlistment of this deponent, he also enlisted in said army for the same time. That he and John Gerger were enlisted by Captain Lewis Farmer a recruiting officer who lived and came from Philadelphia. That said Michael Leatherman and John Gerger were marched from Maryland to Pennsylvania and there were enlisted with the regiment commanded by Colonel Miles. After said Michael Leatherman and John Gerger had remained in Pennsylvania about one month they were marched to the north and joined the army commanded by General Washington and were in the action and defeat of Long Island. While in that action said Miles was taken prisoner. The said Farmer was wounded and the company, except a few, were killed and scattered. Said Farmer was afterward promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel and the remainder of his company left after the battle of Long Island. Soon afterward Michael Leatherman was transferred into another company of Captain Rice of the regiment of Colonel Stewart. Michael Leatherman was in the battle of Brandywine and Germantown and was in the skirmish at the White Plains. He served out the period of his enlistment and was duly and honorably discharged. After the discharge he again entered as a volunteer in the militia of the state of Pennsylvania and was marched to Annapolis as a volunteer soldier in the militia of the state of Maryland and served about four or five weeks, and on learning that Cornwallis was captured, was discharged. He resided in Maryland in the neighborhood of John Gerger and Frederick Gerger till about the year 1791 when he removed to Jefferson County, Kentucky and settled about twelve miles from Louisville where he has resided ever since. John Gerger, mentioned above, is now dead. That Michael Leatherman purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land in Jefferson County and settled thereon. That he is the father of six children among whom are four sons and two daughters. That two of the sons are now dead. That as the children came of age they married and left him. That his son Jacob, when still a minor and about the year 1818, agreed to live with him and to take care of his father for half of the land, till Jacob was of age and not go out for a trade as his brothers had done. That said Jacob lived with his father and mother for about three years after he attained full age and assisted Michael Leatherman to cultivate the farm, and Jacob obtained one-half of the one hundred and sixty acres of land. That his wife has been dead for about six years and he lives with his son-in-law Jacob Blankenbecker who has a large family. That he has been living with him for six years.

In Jefferson County, Kentucky, May 3, 1830, Colonel Frederick Gerger made declaration of acquaintance with the applicant since they were ten or twelve years of age. That said Gerger will be seventy-six years of age on June 8 next. That his brother John Gerger who was mentioned in the application of Michael Leatherman, is now dead. That John Gerger enlisted in 1776 and served as stated.

In Jefferson County Kentucky, May 3, 1830, Simeon N. Kalfus made declaration of acquaintance with the applicant Michael Leatherman and to his belief in his statements.

These affidavits were made before Warden Pope, Clerk of Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Michael Leatherman of Jefferson County, Kentucky who was a private in the company commanded by Captain Rice, in the regiment commanded by General Stewart, was inscribed on the pension roll of the Kentucky agency to commence on June 28, 1830. Certificate of the pension was issued on June 29, 1830.

A letter was written from Jefferson County, Kentucky, July 7, 1831 to the commissioner of pensions that Michael Leatherman departed this life on this morning.

Michael Leatherman's estate

At the Nov. 7, 1831 court, on motion of Elizabeth Applegate, late widow of Michael Leatherman, dec'd, the court ordered that Philip Bence, Henry Robb, John Burks, and Alexander H. Gailbreath allot to Elizabeth her dower of land and slaves. On Dec. 28 the commissioners met at the home of Elizabeth Applegate and allotted to her 28 acres, dwelling house and three slaves. The land bordered that of Philip Bence and that of John Bartlett, Jr., on the north side of the branch. Recorded Apr. 2, 1832. Book 1, page 193 of the original Division Book. Aug. 10, 1837 one-sixth part of Michael Leatherman's estate was given to George Leatherman and one-sixth to Mrs. Wm. D. McHatton. Book 7, page 254. Aug. 12, 1839, on motion of Wm. A. Tucker, January court, 1838 ordered Alexander H. Gailbreath, Henry Robb, John Shadburn, and George Heafer divide and allot to said Tucker his share of estate; Tucker married Mary Leatherman. January court 1841, on motion of Joseph Leatherman and Elijah Applegate, guardians to Elizabeth and John Leatherman, infant heirs of Michael, ordered that certain men be appointed to allot said Joseph, John, and Elizabeth their shares of slaves of said estate.

BROTHERS JOHN AND PETER LEATHERMAN

Jacob Lederman aged 21 and Jacob Lederman aged 17 came to America together on the ship Harle of London, Ralph Harle master, qualified Sept. 1, 1736. Pa. Archives, Vol 17, pages 124 and 125.

Rupp's 30000 Names of Immigrants

Jacob Lädtermann, Sept. 1, 1736, Palatines imported in Ship Harle of London, Ralph Harle master, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. 156 men, 65 women, 167 boys and girls. In all 388 (Editor). Michael Hochstädter sick, Jacob Eysen sick, Abraham Saaler sick. Others on vessel Jacob Hostedler (not his scribe), Johannes Meyer, Daniel Meyer.

Jacob Hochstetler, b 1704, d shortly before Feb., 1776, came to America, landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 1, 1736, Ship Harle, the same ship on which came the two Jacob Lederman. His wife was Anna Lorentz who d Sept. 20 or 21, 1757. They settled at Bernville, Berks Co., Pa., east of Northkill Creek a branch of Tulpehocken Creek which flows into the Schuylkill. Their children were John, Jacob, Joseph, Christian, Barbara, and another daughter.

John was m and had a home of his own and later acquired the old home also. Jacob either d of natural causes or was killed by the Indians at the same time that one of the daughters was killed by Indians. The father and two sons, Joseph and Christian, were captured by the Indians and forced to live with them as Indians until after the war when they were released. The other daughter, Barbara, escaped both death and capture because she was not at home at the time the attack was made. Later Joseph went to Mifflin Co., Pa. In 1784 John and Christian went to Somerset Co., Pa. The 1820 census for Orange Co., Ind., reported Joseph's family as consisting of 5 persons including one free colored male.

Dec. 6, 1795 Christian Hochstetler sold his 216 acres of land in Somerset Co., Pa. and moved to Shelby Co., Ky. where he bought 1500 acres of land near Mount Eden. Later, because of the English crowding into that section, he sold out and went to Montgomery Co., O. The 1820 census for Orange Co., Ind. records his family there as consisting of 8 persons in all, including one male slave. Christian was a Dunk preacher and two of his sons, Abraham and Adam, also became preachers. Christian m Barbara Rupp. Their daughter, Barbara Hochstetler, m Christian Leatherman, son of Peter Leatherman, then living in Shelby Co., Ky. Another daughter, Elizabeth Hochstetler, m Jacob Leatherman.

Kentucky originally was composed of only three counties, viz., Jefferson, Fayette, and Lincoln. Shelby Co. was formed from Jefferson Co. June 2, 1792 and was organized the same year as a county of the state as admitted into the United States. Shelbyville, the county seat of Shelby Co., was organized Jan. 15, 1793. William Shannon Sadsbury laid out the town. All these transactions tended to increase the influx of settlers. Among these early settlers were a number of Leatherman, three of whom were Christian Leatherman, John Leatherman, and Peter Leatherman.

By the way Christian Leatherman and John Leatherman went into Kentucky and bought land in Shelby So. It appears that they may have been the founders of the Kentucky "Leatherman Settlement." Christian Leatherman bought 1000 acres on Buck Creek in Shelby Co. from James Patton, Jan. 25, 1794. John Leatherman bought 1094 acres on Buck Creek in Shelby Co. from James Patton, July 21, 1795.

2. Christian Leatherman, likely a brother to John and Peter Leatherman, m ..... C: Christian, probably others.
3. Christian Leatherman, d in Jefferson Co., Ky., in the latter part of the summer of 1786; m Julianna ..... His will, recorded in Jefferson Co., Ky., Will book 1, page 9, dated Aug. 16, 1786, proven Sept. 5, 1786, leaves wife Julianna, sons John, Daniel, Samuel, Peter, David, and mentions an unborn child. Executors, wife Julianna and father Christian Leatherman.

JOHN LEATHERMAN

2. John Leatherman, d Shelby Co., Ky., 1796; m Hannah ..... From his will, made Jan. 15, 1796, proven Mar., 1796, it appears that he had no children, at least none that left any heirs or that lived until the time he made his will.

A KENTUCKY LEATHERMAN FAMILY

About the year 1818, when the Kentucky Leatherman Settlement seems to have burst like a bubble, a Leatherman family, together with other settlers, migrated from Ky. to Putnam Co., Ind. The story is told that the head of this Leatherman family, though only 17 years old at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, joined the Continental army and served to the end of the war and that upon his return home he learned that all the other members of his father's family had been killed, probably by Indians. His christian name could not be learned. He was apparently b about 1758 and therefore considered of the third generation. Probably he was a near relative of some of the other Leatherman settlers of Ky., but this could not be definitely determined, nor whether he was a native of Ky. The family seems to have been living in Louisville, Ky. for some time before departing for Ind. There were at least five children and perhaps more in this pioneer family. C: Abraham, John, Daniel, Emily, Bland.

4. Abraham Leatherman, b in Ky., Oct. 25, 1801, reared in Louisville, Ky., d Elgin, Ill., Feb. 16, 1889; m 1822, Mary Dewees, b June 18, 1803, d Elgin, Ill., Feb. 18, 1889; they had been m 66 years and were buried in the same grave. At the age of 18 years Abraham took up farming near Greencastle, Ind. where he remained until 1835 then took up his residence in Cook Co., Ill. where he pre-empted 400 acres of land which he bought later when it was put on the market. He sold this land in 1865. The farm was known as Leatherman's Hill and the famous hostelry he kept was known as Leatherman's Inn. When he retired from active business life in 1866 he bought a small tract of land upon which he lived until 1885 then built himself a home in Elgin, Ill., beside that of his son Abraham, where he remained until his death. He was a large man, six feet tall, and was of a genial temperament. In politics he was a democrat. Bapt. Farmer in Ind. and Ill. Jennie was a public school teacher. When she was a mere child, near the close of the Civil War, her parents, who were of Scotch descent, removed to Carsonville, Mich., where they reared their family of five children on a farm. The youngest sister, Marcilene, also a teacher, has her home with Jennie who has always shared her home with her younger sister. The two girls attended Normal School in Valparaiso, Ind., went to college in Mich. and taught school at Sheldon, Ill. Later they went to Colo, where Jennie Anderson m James Rose.

John Ernest Leatherman, with his father and the rest of the family, left the vicinity of Elgin, Ill. when John was still a young boy. He remained on the farm with his father and followed farming for some time after his marriage then moved to Iroquois, Ill. and did creamery work. Later he clerked in a hardware store in Iroquois, Ill. where he was m. Still later he purchased that same hardware store. In 1899 he sold out his hardware business and moved to Thorntown, Ind. where he had bought another hardware store, and continued in the business there. He also had an interest in the bank and for 7 years was president of the Home National Bank in Thorntown, Ind. When his health failed, after having been a city official, bank official, and hardware merchant, he was advised to retire which he did, yet at the time of his death he was a member of the city council. Abraham, a worthy representative of a highly respected pioneer family, was reared in Cook Co., Ill., and in his boyhood, when not in school, helped his father with the farm work. He was a Civil War veteran having enlisted Aug. 12, 1861 in Co. F, 113 Ill. Volunteer Inf. He was mustered in at Chicago, Ill. and discharged there June 29, 1865. After his return from the war he operated a dairy farm until 1883 then moved to Elgin, Ill. where he remained until death. In politics he was a Democrat. 4. John Leatherman, brother of the foregoing Abraham Leatherman, b in Ky., migrated with his parents to Putnam Co., Ind. in 1818. He m ..... C. Anna, and one or two other daughters.

There was a John Leatherman whose will was recorded in Putnam Co., Ind. The will mentions wife Mary, children P ..... (rest of letters in name illegible) King, Sarah Wright, Rachel Wood, Eliza Wright, Washington Leatherman, Benjamin Leatherman, Daniel Leatherman, Frederick Leatherman, Tresa Irwin, Jane Irwin, Catherine Wood. The descendants of other Putnam Co., Ind. Leatherman folk seemed to know nothing more of John Leatherman's family than that John had two or three daughters and gave the name Anna as one of them.

The land transfers of Putnam Co., Ind. show that John Leatherman bought 80 acres of land in Washington Twp., Aug. 3, 1829, and that Polly Leatherman bought 80 acres in Monroe Twp., Aug. 5, 1829. The names Washington Leatherman, Jesse Leatherman also appear. Jesse Leatherman may have been Washington Leatherman's son.

The Putnam Co., Ind. marriage records include the following:

Washington Leatherman m Euseba Swinford, Jan. 8, 1846.

Benjamin Leatherman m Eliza Torr, Mar. 5, 1856.

Frederick Leatherman m Mary Ann Brothers, Aug. 26, 1857.

Catherine Leatherman m Nelson Wood, Nov. 12, 1866.

It is altogether probable that this John Leatherman, maker of the above will is the brother of Abraham Leatherman, though actual proof of it is lacking.

4. Daniel Leatherman, brother of the foregoing Abraham Leatherman, b in Ky., Dec. 18, 1814, probably in or near what was known as the Leatherman Settlement which is said to have been near Harrodsburg, Mercer Co., Ky. He d on his farm in Buchanan Co., Ia., Nov. 12, 1876; m Putnam Co., Ind., Jan. 8, 1835, Mary Ann Wilson, known as Polly or Polly Ann, dau of Castleton Wilson, b in Ky., Sept. 18, 1815, near Harrodsburg, some say in Knox Co., others say in Mercer Co., Ky. She d on the farm in Buchanan Co., Ia.; both are buried at Quasqueton, Ia. Daniel and his parents left Ky. in 1818, about the time the Ky. Leatherman Settlement seems to have exploded and people in that section scattered far and wide in all directions. Daniel's parents moved into Ind. and settled on a farm in Putnam Co. About the same time Polly and her parents also moved into Ind. and located in the same County near Greencastle. About two years after his marriage Daniel and his family migrated to Cook Co., Ill. and located on a farm which now is within the city limits of Elgin. In 1854 they removed to Buchanan Co., Ia. where on June 2nd they took up a claim 3 miles east of Quasqueton in Middlefield Twp, and built a house thereon, the lumber for it having been hauled by wagon from Dubuque, 65 miles away. A part of this house remained standing until 1936 when it burned down. This home was on the trail leading west from Dubuque and on winter nights a light was placed in an upstairs window where travelers for miles around could see it and be guided there to receive lodging. When the new road was surveyed and laid out it left this home about a quarter of a mile off the new highway. The grandchildren expressed many fond recollections of that old home on the trail. Daniel was a Bapt and helped to organize the Bapt church at Quasqueton in 1855. He also helped to build the first schoolhouse in the township. That schoolhouse has in recent years been used as a farm building. They must have moved to Westmoreland Co., Pa. shortly after their marriage since Andrew had a land grant there of 140 acres in 1784 and a tax bill in 1786. He and his family removed to Columbiana Co., O. in 1807. Andrew received four different land grants; three from President Thomas Jefferson, two in 1805 and one in 1808, and one from President John Quincy Adams in 1825. Members of the Luth Ch. C: Margaret, Catharine, Peter, Elizabeth, Mary, Abigail, John, Susanna, Andrew, Henry, Sarah.

The Brinkers seem to have come to America from Switzerland from 1734 to 1754. The first mentioned is Andreas and wife Regula Hester who are the parents of Ulrich whose wife was Appolonia Bayer or Boyer. Ulrich and Appolonia were the parents of Andrew Brinker. Andreas and wife Regula Hester landed at Philadelphia, Pa., June 28, 1735, from the Brig Mary. Andrew's father Ulrich Brinker settled near Easton, Northampton Co., Pa., about 1735. Ulrich's children, however, were christened in the Tohickon Union Church, Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa.

The History of the Tohickon Union Church with copy of church records by Rev. Wm. J. Hinke, Ph.D., Meadville, Pa., 1925, page 106, has: Andrew, son of Ulrich and Appolonia Brencker, b Feb. 23, 1760, baptized Mar. 16, 1760. Sponsors Andrew Brencker and wife.

On petition, filed June 20, 1786, Andrew Brinker, son of Ulrich late of Lower Saucon Twp., prayed for partition of the estate of Ulrich Brinker who d about June 20, 1785 leaving six children: Andrew the petitioner, Margaret the wife of Simon Hawk, Jacob, Adam, John, George.

From the 1790 census for Mt. Pleasant Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., which records 3 males over 16, 2 males under 16, and 3 females, it appears that Andrew, the oldest son, took it upon himself to care for the younger children of his father's family.

Andrew Brinker was 1st class private in Lieut. Col. Cochran's Fourth Co., 4th battalion of the Northampton Co. militia, Apr. 20, 1782. His name is found in Northampton Co., Pa. Militia, Vol. 4, page 314 and Vol 8, page 339, Pa. Archives, Fifth Series.

BROTHERS MICHAEL AND (?) LEATHERMAN

There was a Michael Leatherman who spelled his name "Lederman" and who lived in York Co., Pa., which Co. was formed from Lancaster Co. in 1822. He was of the Chr Ev Luth Ch. Among the names recorded in this church are: Johann Michel Leddermann, Michael Ledermann, Michael Letterman and wife Marcretha, Michael Leederman and wife Anna Margaretha. The spellings of these names are likely of Swedish origin or mixture. Michael Lederman of York Co., Pa. was one of the founders of the town of York laid out in 1741. Swedish settlement of America, 1st 1738.

Michael Leatherman's will, probated Apr. 8, 1778.

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Michael Leatherman of York Town, in the County of York and state of Pa., Yeoman, being sick and weak in body but of sound disposing mind and understanding, do this 11th day of Aug. in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, as follows: first I commend my soul to God who gave it me and my body to the earth to be decently buried, and as touching all my worldly estate, I give, devise, and dispose of the same as follows, —

"First I order that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Item I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Margaret all that corner house and lott of ground adjoining my dwelling house and two lotts of ground to hold and occupy the same to her only use etc. behoof with the appurtenances during her natural life if she so long continueth a widow and after her decease (or intermarriage) which happens first the said house and lott to descend to my son, Conrad and his heirs and assigns forever."

He further gave his wife choice of his best beds and bedsteads and furniture thereto etc. etc. and interest on one thousand pounds, that is 60 pounds yearly during her natural life. And then all property, lands and houses etc. went to Conrad, his son. He signed his name to the will in German. Witnesses of will: "Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared in the presence of us, wife Margaret, Henry Wolf, Jacob Schriver. Michael Lederman."

The tax list of both Michael's wife Margaret and son Conrad show considerable property formerly of Michael Leatherman. Both had a large list of taxes. See Vol. 21, pages 7, 146, 175, 331, 344, 577, 647, 666, 679.

1. .... Lederman, brother of the foregoing Michael Lederman, was lost on the ocean with the ship on which he was sailing to America to make this country his home. He had previously brought his children over to be cared for by relatives, his wife being dec'd. He was a hired officer in the Swedish army. C: Casper, Eve.

Nothing further than the mention of him in the story of Eve, and the following tax report could be learned about Eve's brother Casper.

Casper Leatherman, Antin Twp., Cumberland Co., Pa. Freeman Tax List. Supply rates, 1780. Tax 5 pounds. Vol. 20, page 256.

The story of Eve Leatherman is somewhat romantic. Mrs. Sophia Main Boyle of Pottsville, Pa. used to entertain her grandchildren by telling them of her grandmother, Eve Leatherman. According to the story, Eve was born in Sweden where her father was an officer in the Swedish army. Some of Eve's ancestors had been among the early settlers in the Swedish colony in America, and she had an aunt and an uncle living in America. When Eve's mother died her father brought Eve and her brother Casper to America some time between 1740 and 1750 to place them in the care of their aunt, his sister. He was so much pleased with this country that he decided to settle up his affairs in Sweden and come here to stay. He did so but in trying to return to this country, the vessel on which he was sailing was lost at sea and he with it. The aunt kept Eve and reared her near Philadelphia, Pa., while the brother, older than Eve, was taken by their uncle Michael Leatherman living in York Co., Pa. Years later the brother, Casper, came to visit Eve, his sister who spoke English while he could speak only German, so they had to have an interpreter. He was so disappointed that he never returned to see her though they heard from each other occasionally.

Needless to say, the story of Eve was interesting to Mrs. Boyle's grandchildren. It is a noticeable fact that, though Eve's father lived in Sweden and served as a soldier in the Swedish army, he was a German and his relatives were German. No doubt he had gone to Sweden as a mercenary soldier.

LEATHERMAN OF UNESTABLISHED LINEAGES

Brief records and accounts have been received of Leatherman people who could not be traced to their respective immigrant ancestors, nor could a relationship with the preceding Leatherman branches be authentically established, though there are remote indications of such kinship to one or another of the preceding lineages. It is possible and quite probable that some of these groups may belong to the same lineage, but since the proof is lacking, each group is recorded as a separate family. Since the generation to which these people correctly belong cannot be determined accurately, such generation numbers are used as seem to conform most nearly to the generation of contemporaries in the larger Leatherman lineages.

HENRY LEATHERMAN

3. Henry Leatherman, apparently about of the same age as the children of Elder Daniel Leatherman, also lived in Frederick Co., Md. He dealt extensively in land in that county, as evidenced by the many transfer deeds recorded in Frederick Co., in his name from early in 1771 until the close of 1803. He was m and had a family of children and kept a few slaves, but no record was found that disclosed the names of either his wife or children. The 1790 census recorded his family as consisting, at that time, of himself, five females and two slaves. Since no other record of him or his family was found in Frederick Co., Md.—no death, no will, no settlement of estate, no marriages of his daughters (he apparently had no sons),—it is assumed the family moved to some other locality, but whither they went or how they fared is not known to the compilers of this history.

CATHARINE LEATHERMAN

“May, 1868 I read this information: Grandfather Custer’s mother and George Washington’s mother were sisters named Ball. Grandfather Custer was married to Catharine Leatherman of Fayette Co., Pa. She was reared near Hagerstown, Md.
Byron Clark.”

Dr. Clark made the above statement in 1929. Since then, a further investigation into the Custer history has revealed the following:

Paul Custer, descended from noble English blood, m 1740, Sarah Martha Ball, b in Fauquier Co., Va., 1722, d Dec. 10, 1779. Sarah was a second cousin to George Washington, her paternal grandfather, William Ball, and George Washington's maternal grandfather, Joseph Ball, having been brothers. The children of Paul and Sarah Custer were Paul, George, William, Nicholas, Jonathan. George Custer, the second son, m 1st Mar. 29, 1774, Susannah Long who d when their children were all small. They were John, George, Sarah, David, Jacob, Hannah. The fifth of these children, Jacob Custer, m Elizabeth "Betsy" Leatherman, dau of Michael and Catharine (Palmer) Leatherman of Washington Co., Pa. When John, the oldest, was not quite 10 years old and Hannah, the youngest, only about 3½ months old, George Custer m for his second wife Catharine Leatherman.

3. Catharine Leatherman, b Apr. 7, 1765, d Sept. 22, 1844; m as 2nd wife, Nov. 28, 1784, George Custer of Chester Co., Pa., b Dec. 3, 1744, d Dec. 17, 1829. Catharine was reared near Hagerstown, Md., and later lived in Fayette Co., Pa. A quarter section of land in Tuscarawas Co., O., was granted to George Custer, Jan. 30, 1811, by the President of the United States. George Custer and wife Catharine deeded this same land to their son Jonathan and wife Rachel, Dec. 9, 1819. Records in possession of descendants show that George and Catharine Custer had 11 children though the names of only 9 are given. C: Daniel, Susannah, Catherine, Magdalena, Joseph, Jonathan, Mary, Elizabeth, Lydia, 2 others who probably d in infancy.
4. Daniel Custer, who spelled his name Custard, was b in Md., Oct. 18, 1785, d Lima, O., Nov. 18, 1868, m likely in Carroll Co., O., Nancy Kyle, b Carroll Co., O., 1809, d Lima, O., Mar. 4, 1869; both are interred in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima, O. C: Jonathan, doubtless others.
5. Jonathan Custard, b Tuscarawas Co., O., Nov. 17, 1834, d Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 26, 1917; m Allen Co., O., by R. M. Wadean, M.G., Jan. 1, 1856, Sarah E. Terry, b Lima, O., July 12, 1836, d Lima, O., Jan. 12, 1919; both buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima, O. C: Lillie, Daniel, Edwin, Della, perhaps others.
6. Lillie Custard, b Lima, O., 1858, d Lima, O., Jan. 2, 1863, buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

6. Daniel Custard, b Lima, O., 1862, d Lima, O., June 4, 1863, buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.
6. Edwin K. Custard, b Lima, O., Mar. 9, 1864, d Long Beach, Calif., Oct. 23, 1927, buried in Woodlawn Cemetery; m Allen Co., O., by Rev. R. C. Wall, pastor of the Chr Ch, Apr. 30, 1887, Ellen L. Dunsby. C: Edwin, and others.
7. Edwin F. Custard, b Toledo, O., July 4, 1896, d Toledo, O., July 3, 1897, buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima, O.
6. Della Custard, b Lima, O., Nov. 11, 1868, d Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 5, 1922, buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima, O.; m ----- Murmser.

There are a number of Custers and Custards whose names appear in the records of Allen Co., O. They are probably all descendants of George Custer but whether they are of the second wife, Catharine (Leatherman) Custer, or of the first wife was not learned. A few of those found in the marriage records who may be children and grandchildren of Daniel Custard are as follows:

Samuel Custard, m Allen Co., O., Oct. 9, 1844, Elizabeth Jacobs.

Nancy Custard of Allen Co., O., m July 15, 1847, Wesley Ogan of Putnam Co., O.

Sarah Custard, m Nov. 30, 1848, James A. Newell.

Mary Ann Custard, m Dec. 3, 1850, James Jacobs.

William Custard, m Allen Co., O., by Elijah Grubb, J. P., Oct. 4, 1857, Harriet Miller, d Feb. 2, 1861, aged 30 years, 2 months, 15 days. They had a son Jacob M. Custard who d Feb. 2, 1860 at the age of 1 month. Harriet and son Jacob are buried in Ridge cemetery, east of Harrod, Allen Co., O.

Jane Custard and John Conell were m May 26, 1872 by L. W. Corbet, pastor.

Henry Custard and Rebecca Lones were m Jan. 1, 1857.

Francis Custard, not 21, and Ellen Hullibarger, over 18, were m Oct. 28, 1882, by T. C. Christopher.

William Letherman, 25 years of age, before the court in Greensburg, Pa., in Mar., 1935. His home was in Charleroi, Washington Co., Pa. His father was principal of the Webster, Pa. schools. William may be a descendant either of John and Christena (Myers) Letherman or of Jonathan and Ann (Ritchie) Letherman. Members of these families seem to be the only ones in this vicinity who spell the name "Letherman."

George Leatherman bought two tracts of land in Lewickley Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., in 1837.

JONAS LEATHERMAN

Jonas Leatherman and his brother Christian likely moved from Md. or Va., since the descendants speak of Daniel and Nicholas Leatherman, to Rowan Co., N. C., in the fore part of the 19th century. Tradition said about 1800 but it likely was a little later. About the year 1814 Jonas migrated to Lincoln Co., Tenn. where in May, 1816, he purchased 437 acres of land on Swan Creek in the western part of the county. Jan. 21, 1825 he sold 161 acres, Sept. 13, 1827 he bought 300 acres, Nov. 19, 1829 he sold 110 acres, and July 3, 1837 he sold 6 acres. This was the last transfer by Jonas Leatherman. The names of Daniel Leatherman and Charles Leatherman appear on record of deed transfers in 1844 and 1857.

ARTHUR LEATHERMAN

Arthur Leatherman of Martinsville, Ill., worked for the Ohio Oil Co. In a letter he said he had a grandfather on his fathers' side. His father's name is Frank. They were formerly from Va. He said that he had two aunts and one uncle on the Leatherman side. They were m but he could not give the dates. One is at Sweedsboro, Mo., her name is Ione by marriage. One is in Casey, Ill., her name is Staley. His uncle Harry is in Peoria, Ill. He teaches Mathematics in High School. His father is an oil well contractor. He said that there were six children of them, 3 boys and 3 girls. He is the youngest son. The oldest brother is employed by the Penna. R. R. Co. The next brother is in Detroit, Mich., employed by General Motors. He had 2 sisters m; the one is in Ada, Okla., the other sister is in Gary, Ind. He said he couldn't tell when they were m. They were all m but one sister. That he will get the records together for the next letter. He will send a complete record to us. That he did not know that there were any other Leathermans in the country but one at Akron, O., etc., etc. We waited and wrote many times to him and to others but the above is all that was ever received. This was in 1929, about 10 years ago. We insert the above to give the reader some idea as to our difficulties in compiling the records of families.—I. J. L.

Worth, Tex. where both d in the home of their son, Marion Gilbert Whittington. It has been suggested that Mrs. Whittington's name, Roanne, might indicate the possibility that her parents formerly may have res in Rowan Co., N. C. where there were Leatherman families living some years ago. This, however, is mere conjecture, especially in view of the fact that Roanne was b in Claiborne Parish, La. and that her parents were m in Claiborne Parish, La. ### SAMUEL LEATHERMAN

A letter:

Comanche, Tex., May 28, 1926

S. G. or Sam Leatherman was my mother's father and Thomas Leatherman was my mother's uncle and Wayne Leatherman was my mother's cousin. I do not remember anything about Amanda Leatherman. I have the original family record of my mother's stating that Sam Leatherman was her father.

Signed: Julian J. Johnson

Comanche, Tex., Route 2, Box 103.

Julian J. and Walter Johnson, who are evidently sons of Adeline Johnson, furnish the following:

Themirah McCasland, dec'd.

Adeline Johnson, dec'd.

Sarah Pruitt or Mrs. Jake Pruitt, dec'd.

Elizabeth Pruitt or Mrs. John Pruitt, dec'd.

Martha Wilson, dec'd.

Eunice McDonald Rainey, living at Buckholtz, Tex., so far as we know.

Lottie Wallace, dec'd.

Frank Leatherman, dec'd.

Gibb Leatherman, living at Davilla, Milam Co., Tex.

Jack Leatherman, living at Lott, Tex.

This list is likely the children of one wife. Two sons, Silas and Henry, were recorded below.

Mrs. Mollie L. Bryant of Shreveport, La., the last surviving child of Thomas Leatherman, said that her father's brother Sam Leatherman, came to Milam Co., Tex., and that he was married 7 times. Considering so many marriages there may have been more children.

Mrs. Mattie (Cargill) Darnell whose step-father was Sam Leatherman, a nephew of "Old Uncle Sam" Leatherman, says that Samuel was her step-father's uncle and that Silas and Henry were his sons. Mrs. Darnell is a daughter of John Wesley Cargill and wife Temperance (Goodger) Cargill. After the death of John Wesley Cargill, which occurred when Mattie was a small child, his widow Temperance m Sam Leatherman. Caroline Cargill, sister of John Wesley Cargill's father, m a Leatherman who came to Erath Co., Tex. and lived to a very advanced age; buried in the Salem community cemetery near Samuel Leatherman's former home that burned down. Caroline was the mother of Samuel Leatherman, the step-father of Mrs. Darnell. Caroline was also the mother of John, Henry, and Burl Leatherman. This is corroborated by Mrs. John Turner Leatherman of Bluff Dale, Tex.

4. Samuel G. Leatherman, known as "Old Uncle Sam" Leatherman, brother of the foregoing Thomas Leatherman migrated from Claiborne Parish, La. to Milam Co., Tex. and later to Erath Co., Tex. where he settled on a farm in the Salem community, south of Stephenville, the county seat. It is said that he was m seven times but the names of his wives, and the places and times of his marriages are not stated. Farmer. C: Themirah McCasland, Adeline Johnson, Sarah Pruitt, Elizabeth Pruitt, Martha Wilson, Eunice McDonald Raney, Lottie Wallace, Frank Leatherman, Gibb Leatherman, Jack Leatherman, all likely of one wife; Silas Leatherman, Henry Leatherman, likely of another wife; perhaps others of other wives.
4. _____ Leatherman, brother of Thomas and Samuel Leatherman, all three from Claiborne Parish, La., migrated to Milam Co., Tex. and later to Erath Co., Tex. The following records of Peter Randolph Leatherman were submitted by some of the foregoing Texas Leatherman people. It has been suggested that his middle name Randolph might indicate that his parents may have come from Randolph Co., N. C. Such an idea seems rather imaginative, however, inasmuch as he was b in Miss., not in North Carolina. It would seem just as reasonable to suppose that his parents may have come from Randolph Co., W. Va.

5. Peter Randolph Leatherman, b Wilkinson Co., Miss., m Frances Ann Dunckley on her 19th birthday, in Apr. or May. He was 5 years older than his wife. After marriage Peter resided with his father and taught the neighborhood school on Percy Creek. He then taught grandfather Dunckley's children until 1860 when he bought his father's old home in the Donegal vicinity in Wilkinson Co., Miss. He and his family lived there for 2 years when he went into the Civil War. He was a confederate soldier and was under General Lee till the close of the war. He then sold the home and purchased the Dunckley home 2½ miles from Woodville, the county seat of Wilkinson Co., Miss. There he resided until 1874. Two years later, when he was about 45 years old, he removed to Tensas Parish, La., taking his wife and younger daughter, to manage a plantation there. Later he sold the father-in-law Dunckley home and moved to the Black River plantation in La., bought by John King, his wife's grandfather. Mrs. Dunckley inherited a part of this plantation and her niece Emily King inherited the balance. Emily King was m to Frank M. Leatherman, a cousin of Peter Randolph Leatherman's children Mary E. and Kate. Mrs. Peter Randolph Leatherman, after the death of her mother, inherited her mother's share of the plantation. Peter and wife, fearing the overflow of the Mississippi River, sold out and removed to Lincoln Co., Miss., near Brookhaven. He did truck farming for a while, then taught school in Utica. Later he moved to Franklin Co., Miss. where he again purchased a home on the outskirts of a small village where he resided until about two years before he died then returned to his daughter's home in Wilkinson Co., Miss. While teaching the Dunckley children Peter wrote a book entitled "Elements on Moral Science", published in Philadelphia, Pa., by James Challen and Son, in 1860, just before the Civil War began. It contained a chapter in which he tried to prove from the Bible that slavery is right. There was no sale for the book and he was unable to revise it. Peter had been teaching school until near the close of his life. Cancer of the face caused his death. C: Mary, Kate.

There are some colored people by the name of Leatherman in northern Ohio and in North Carolina. This shows that some of the Leathermans were slave owners. The census of 1790 and other records also show that such was the case.

The Mennonite Congregation at Deep Run

The Mennonite congregation at Bedminster is one of the oldest in Bucks Co., Pa. The meeting house stands on a knoll in the southeast corner of the township, on the north side of a branch of Deep Run and faces east. By deed dated Mar. 24, 1746, a 50 acre tract of land was granted by William Penn's son-in-law, William Allen, to the "German Quakers" or Mennonites for the purpose of erecting thereon a church building. William Allen also presented the congregation with a silver cup. The land was entrusted to Abraham Swartz, Hans Friedt, Samuel Koble, and Marcus Oberholtzer, the bishops and deacons of the church at that time. Jacob Ledterman was a charter member of this church. In 1746 he helped to erect their first meeting house, a log building in which to worship. This was replaced in 1766 by a stone building 35 feet by 58 feet, and was enlarged in 1795. A part of the building was used for a dwelling. In 1872 it was rebuilt into the present structure. In 1913 a heating plant was installed. From 1776 to 1842 that log church building was used for school purposes.

The inscription on the Old Deep Run church house at present, as given by a friend, is:

In the cemetery back of the Old Deep Run church house lie buried the remains of the pioneer Jacob Ledterman and wife Magdalena and of a large number of their descendants. For half a century or more the grave markers used were not marble nor granite but native shale stones. Some of these are inscribed with only the name, others with initials instead of the name, and the year or date of death. The initials ending with "L M" are invariably found next to or very near those of known Leatherman and undoubtedly represent the name "Leatherman" in its former two-word form. Next to the markers of Jacob and Magdalena Ledterman is one inscribed "A L M 1777"; nearby are: "I L M 1770"; "1770 Rebecca L M"; November 18, 1790 Elizabeth Ledtermennin" (German feminine ending); "March 29, 1813 C - L - M"; "Tobias Leatherman"; "Catharine Letherman d June 5, 1812 aged 19 yrs 9 mo 6 da"; "John Leatherman d May 19, 1818 aged 10 years." Unquestionably all of these were descendants or near relatives of Jacob Ledterman but their exact family connection is not established.

By the side of the oldest portion of the cemetery stands the old Deep Run Schoolhouse. The old backless wooden benches are inside the school room which was never ceiled, and on the sides of the exposed joists is marked the musical scale from which, presumably, the children learned to sing.

The school was in charge of three trustees alternately elected yearly for a term of three years. The teachers boarded with the families of the district and worked for their board. The records since 1812 are still preserved. When the state began to furnish free schools the old buildings were replaced by new ones. The Deep Run schoolhouse was condemned in 1875 as unsafe for school purposes. The same year a new brick building was built just north of the church. Different subscriptions were made toward the repair and preservation of the old building which now remains standing as a county relic.

Good Citizenship

Newton was the county seat of Bucks Co., Pa., from 1799 to 1812, then Doylestown became the county seat. Old township account books in the county show that the Leathermans were public spirited. Christian Letherman in 1813 and 1814, John Letherman in 1827-28-29, and Philip Leatherman in 1842, were supervisors of state highways; John Leatherman in 1835 and Henry Leatherman in 1845-46 were auditors; Jacob Letherman in 1844 was school director; John Letherman was tax collector.

JACOB LEDTERMAN

1. Jacob Ledterman, b in Germany about 1709, came to America in the good Ship Lydia, Captain Allan, and was qualified at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 29, 1741, under the Act of Assembly of 1727, by swearing allegiance to the English Crown. He was then 32 years of age. (Penna. Archives, Vol. 17, page 212). He was accompanied by his wife Magdalene and two sons, Jacob and Abraham, the latter being a little over two years old. Soon after their arrival they settled in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. on one of the farms of the Allen Tract, in a neighborhood of other German immigrants.

The Allen tract of land in southeastern Pa., comprising 6653 acres, was surveyed and laid out to Chief Justice William Allen, March 5, 1730. Allen proceeded to lay it out in farms varying in size from 100 to 200 acres, numbered consecutively and sold almost exclusively to German immigrants who had recently arrived. This was some time around the year 1745. In most cases a very small cash payment was made by the purchaser for which a receipt was given but no deed was executed until a satisfactory portion of the purchase money was paid. Very few deeds bear date earlier than 1760. In some cases the first buyers never completed their purchases, in others the deeds were not executed until after Allen's death in Sept., 1780.

Jacob Ledterman bought his farm of 162 acres and 37 perches, situated on both sides of Deep Run and adjoining the church plat, from William Allen, by parole agreement the date of which is not known. Although he virtually owned this farm for a quarter of a century or more, no deed for it had been executed up to the time of his decease. The year following his death, however, this farm which "Jacob held in his lifetime by virtue of a certain parole Agreement made with Jacob Leatherman and did agree to convey" etc., was transferred by deed dated Feb. 28, 1770, "from William Allen to Henry Kraut and Rudolph Landis, executors of the will of Jacob Leatherman, deceased." These executors, by deed dated Oct. 24, 1774 conveyed the homestead to Michael Leatherman, third son of the decedent. (Bucks Co., Pa. Deed Record, book 18, page 441.) July 31, 1800, after Michael's death, his executors, Rudolph Landis, Bedminster Twp., and Anna Loux, of Plumstead Twp., deeded the farm to his son Henry who sold 20 acres of it to his uncle Jacob Ledterman, (Deed book 30, page 525), and continued to hold the remaining 142 acres throughout his lifetime. After Henry's death it descended to his two sons John and Jacob. In 1825 it was divided into two farm homes. That part on which stood and still stand the first buildings, fell to John and is now owned and occupied by John G. and Mary M. (Derstine) Leatherman. Mary is a great granddaughter of John Leatherman, and both she and John G. are descended by six generations from the pioneer Jacob Ledterman.

This old House, to the left of the stone house, was built by Jacob Ledterman the pioneer, sometime between 1741 and 1769.

Jacob Ledterman was married in Germany to Magdalena ..... Her family name is not definitely known, but she must have been either a sister or a sister-in-law of Philip Jantz or Johns, since their son Henry's will mentions "my uncle Philip Johns." Philip Jantz was also one of the witnesses to Jacob Ledterman's will.

Jacob Ledterman's will, probated and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills in Philadelphia, Pa., (Will Book O, page 326, provides in part as follows:—

"I, Jacob Ledterman, of Bedminster township . . . . being at this time sick and weak but of sound sense and understanding the Lord be praised therefor, do hereby make my last Will and Testament to dispose of the temporal goods wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this World.

"My wife Magdalene is to take first of my Movable goods one chest which she shall choose, her bed and all that belongs to the bed and so much of the Kitchen Furniture as she has occasion for and shall choose one of my cows, two sheep and one hog, two chairs, a spinning wheel, table cloths, four towels and a pepper mill and when my goods shall be sold by my Executors they shall out of the proceeds pay unto her twelve pounds. She shall have her saddle and two garden hoes.

"The grain now in the house, Meat and Linen and stuff shall remain in my house and family and shall not be sold. . . .

"My family to be clothed with the same not to be deducted from their shares.

"My wife, Magdalene to live on the Plantation until son John shall attain the age of sixteen years if she remains a widow and she shall pay a yearly rent of thirteen pounds and have the corn now in the ground and shall in the last year of her term or when John is sixteen sow with winter corn as many acres as she now receives. If she marries again before John is sixteen she shall deliver up the Plantation to my Executors who shall sell the same at public vendue . . . . they shall sell it when John is sixteen in any case.

"My children Henry and John shall remain with their mother until either is sixteen then to learn such trade as they have inclination for.

"My children, Jacob, Abraham, Michael, Henry, John, Catharine, Magdalene, and Anna to have equal shares of my estate . . . what they have already received to be deducted from their respective shares. My wife Magdalene to receive a share equal to each child's part.

"I nominate and appoint my neighbors Henry Krout and Rudolph Landis executors of this my last will and testament.

"Dated the twenty-seventh of January one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine in Bucks County, Province of Pennsylvania.

(Signed in German) Jacob Ledterman" (SEAL)

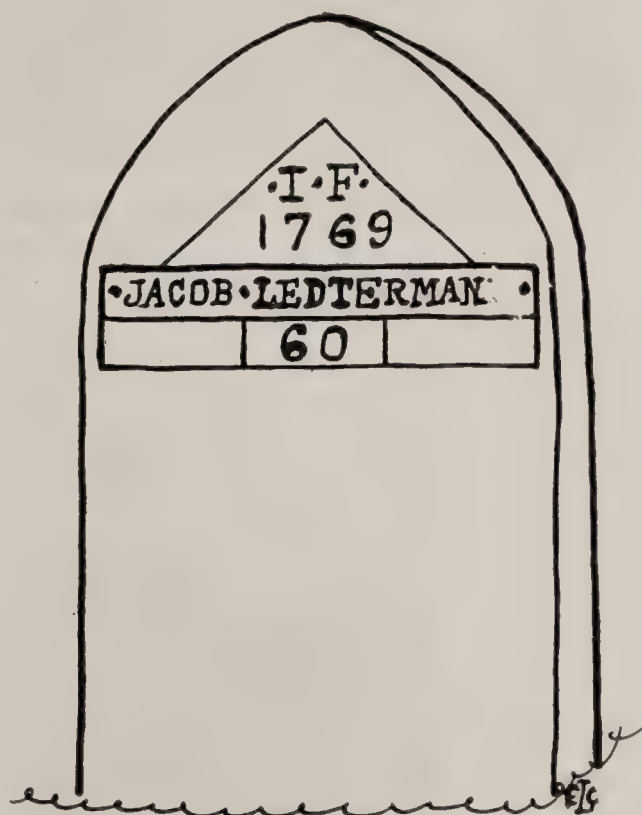

"Witnesses—

Philip Jantz

Theiss Dinstman"

Probated February 14, 1769 and letters testamentary granted to Henry Kraut and Rudolph Landis the executors named therein.

Jacob Ledterman died on his farm, Feb. 17, 1769 at the age of 60 years. His remains lie buried in the graveyard of the Deep Run Mennonite church. His grave is marked with a stone taken from the nearby creek, and is shaped into a slab somewhat pointed at the top, around twelve inches wide with straight sides but tapered in thickness from about three inches at its base to nearly two inches at the top, and stands about two feet high.

On the face is carved the inscription as here illustrated.

Magdalena survived her husband by many years. She was evidently still living when her daughter Anna's will was made March 29, 1788, in which was a bequest to "my Beloved Mother Magdalena Ledterman, Widow." She lived on the farm probably about 1790. Her grave marker, near that of her husband, bears the name "Magdalena Ledermanin," and, like that of her husband, is a stone from the creek.

Jacob was a farmer and apparently also a joiner or carpenter, since he had a set of joiner's tools which he willed to his son Henry. C: Jacob, Abraham, Magdalena, Michael,

Anna, Catharine, Henry, John. There may have been another child who died an infant but this is questionable. Davis's History of Bucks Co., Pa., states that six c were b to Jacob and Magdalena Leatherman after their arrival in America.

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB LEDTERMAN

2. Jacob Ledterman, spelled "Läderrmann" on his tombstone, was b in Germany about 1737, d Bucks Co., Pa., June 11, 1805; at the time of his death Doylestown newspapers gave his age as 65 years but according to other records and reports found he must have been b about 1737; he grew to manhood almost in the shadow of the Deep Run Menn Ch and always lived near it; m in Bucks Co., Pa., about 1761, Esther Stauffer or Stover who d in June, 1816, dau of Christian and Elizabeth (Meyer) Stauffer; Jacob and Esther are both buried in the cemetery of the Old Deep Run Menn Ch. Jacob bought a tract of land adjoining both his father's farm and the church plat. He apparently was the virtual owner of this tract of land for some time before it was conveyed to him by deed. The deed, dated Feb. 3, 1767, recorded at Doylestown, Pa., Deed Book 15, page 194, shows that William Allen of the City of Philadelphia conveyed to Jacob Leatherman, Jr. of Bucks County, 141 acres described as follows:—

"Beginning at a Black Oak a corner of land of Abraham Black, thence by the same, South 45 degrees 55 minutes East 240 perches to the line of William Moyer, thence by the same, North 49 degrees, East 52.6 perches and South 47½ degrees East 19 perches to the line of lands of the Mennonite Congregation; by the same North 41 degrees 55 minutes East 38 perches to the line of Jacob Letherman, Sr. thence by the same, North 47 degrees 5 minutes West 266 perches to the line of Dilman Kolb; thence by the same, South 42 degrees 50 minutes West 85 perches to the place of Beginning, containing 141 acres." This land remained in the tenure of the family for at least four generations.

Jan. 25, 1768 Jacob bought 156 perches of land from Abraham Black for the site of a mill-dam on Deep Run Creek, and a strip for a millrace.

July 25, 1785 he bought a "plantation of 103 acres in Plumstead township," on the east side of the Easton Road, then known as Dyers Road, half way between the present villages of Danboro and Plumsteadville. This plantation was conveyed Aug. 22, 1795, by "Jacob Leatherman of Bedminster and Esther his wife" to their son "Jacob Ledterman of Plumstead" for the consideration of 800£. (Deed Book 28, page 251.) The deed was signed "Jacob Ledterman" and "Esther (her mark) Ledterman."

June 30, 1798 "Jacob Leatherman, Sr. and Esther his wife of Bedminster Township," conveyed 126 acres of his original 141 acre farm, including the mill site, the dam, and the mill-race, to his son Christian for a consideration of 1130£, (Deed Book 30, page 734) retaining the "Mansion House" and 15 acres of ground to which was added the 20 adjoining acres which his brother Michael's son Henry sold to him from the original Ledterman homestead. Deed Book 30, page 525.

Jacob's will dated Mar. 22, 1805, probated Sept. 26, 1805, signed by his mark and witnessed by Ralph Stover and Heinrich Letherman, devised to his "wife Ester the Use Benefit and Income of my Land and Premises on which I now live" . . . . The "Land and Premises" were the 35 acres and the "Mansion House" wherein he and his wife, Esther, lived from the time of their marriage until death. In accordance with the terms of Jacob's will, the property was appraised Dec. 7, 1816, under an agreement made Nov. 16, 1816 among the heirs, and confirmed to Jacob Letherman, the surviving executor, at the appraised valuation. By deed dated Jan. 15, 1817 the tract was conveyed to Jacob Letherman, the oldest son, for the consideration of $2100, by agreement of the other heirs, viz: Jacob and John Letherman, sons of Christian Letherman, dec'd; Conrad Harple, Joseph Letherman, Abraham Fretz, William Fretz, and Joseph Landis, guardians of the minor children of Christian Letherman, dec'd; daughters Elizabeth of Buckingham, wife of Jacob Overholt; Mary, wife of David High of Bedminster; Ann, wife of Ralph High of Bedminster.

Jacob and Esther were members of the Deep Run Menn Ch. He was a farmer and sawyer in Bedminster Twp.

Jacob and Esther's grave markers, like most others of that time and place, are slabs of native red shale. Jacob's marker bears the crudely but artistically carved German inscription: "1805 DEN 11 IUNIUS IS GESTORBEN IACOB LÄDERMANN." The marker on Esther's grave is about the same height but much narrower and bears the simple inscription: "E L M 1816." C: Jacob, Elizabeth, Christian, Mary, Anna, Joseph.

3. Jacob S. Letherman, b Bucks Co., Pa., Aug. 26, 1762 and, like his father, was reared to manhood near the Deep Run Menn Ch. In 1785 he m Esther Oberholtzer or Overholt, b near Bedminster about 1764, youngest dau of Jacob and Esther (Leatherman) Overholt.

Jacob and Esther (Leatherman) Oberholtzer lived near Bedminsterville, Pa., on a farm of 152 acres and 95 perches which Jacob had bought of William Allen in 1763 and had built thereon a log house in 1779. This house not only remains standing but is still used as a dwelling. It has been weatherboarded and has had additions built to it. Jacob and Esther (Leatherman) Oberholtzer's children were: Elizabeth, Barbara, Jacob, Magdalena, Esther. (Overholt History, pages 199 and 200.) No records were found to indicate who were Esther (Leatherman) Overholt's parents nor what relation, if any, she was to the other Bucks Co., Pa. Leatherman.

Besides the 103 acre farm in Plumstead Twp., acquired from his father in 1795, which farm he continued to hold throughout his life-time, Jacob S. Letherman also bought of Anthony Lear by deed dated Apr. 8, 1797 (Deed Book 28, page 599), about 80 acres in Plumstead Twp. nearly all of which he and his wife Esther conveyed to Daniel Rickert by deed dated Aug. 9, 1804. (Deed Book 33, page 576). The deed records as received, erroneously gave Esther's name as Elizabeth.

By deed dated Apr. 14, 1803 (Deed Book 33, page 1), Jacob bought of Israel Michener, 40 acres adjoining his 103 acre farm, and on Mar. 29, 1814 he bought of George Cope another 64½ acres adjoining the other two farms. The 35 acres which he had acquired from his father's estate, he disposed of during his lifetime. He died seized of 211 acres and 25 perches of land in Plumstead Twp. On Apr. 2, 1829 his sons and daughters joined in a deed to John Moore for the entire tract (Deed Book 54, page 346), for the purpose of division, and on the same date John Moore reconveyed the land to Jacob's four sons, divided as follows: 64 acres, 45 perches to John Leatherman; 47 acres, 120 perches to Abraham; 75 acres, 21 perches to Joseph; 23 acres, 59 perches to Jacob.

Jacob Letherman d in Plumstead Twp., Dec. 10, 1827, at the age of 65 years, 3 months, 14 days. His tombstone in the old Menn graveyard at Deep Run, giving his death and his age, is in a good state of preservation. On it is chiseled the German inscription: "Jacob Letherman Starb den 10 December, 1827. Seines Alter 65 Jahr, 3 Monat, 14 Tag." By its side is the tombstone of his wife Esther. The inscription on her grave marker, also in German, translated is, "Esther Ledterman died Oct. 7, 1816, in the 52nd year of her age." (Note the different spelling of the name on the two stones.)

Letters of Administration of his estate were granted Jan. 3, 1828 to Joseph Letherman and Jacob Letherman, with Adam Fry and Philip Kratz as sureties. (Admrn. Book C, page 134.) The inventory of his personal estate, consisting of household goods, crops, utensils, and notes amounting to $295 (names of the makers not given), was filed Jan. 1, 1828, and appraised at a total value of $1174.11½ to which was added the net proceeds of the income and expenditures itemized in an account filed Mar. 9, 1829, leaving a "balance in the hands of the administrators of $1251.47."

Jacob and Esther were members of the Deep Run Menn

Ch, and Jacob was a farmer. C: Joseph, Esther, Betsy, Jacob, Mollie, John, Abraham, Anna.

Henry left the Danboro, Pa. home in 1878 and with his family went to Dodge City, Ford Co., Kans., and on to Meade, Meade Co., Kans. In 1880 they moved to the Canadian River ranches; the "T" ranch, Adobe Walls ranch, and Ox Ranch where they worked until the fall of 1884 then removed to Greeley, Anderson Co., Kans., and in the fall of 1887 to Doniphan, Ripley Co., in southeastern Mo. where they stayed 8 years. With that roving spirit urging them on, they started out again in a covered wagon and arrived at Raton, N. Mex., Oct. 8, 1895. He operated a stage station at the Ute Park, Colfax Co., N. Mex., for some years then finally located with his family in Taos, Taos Co., N. Mex. where his life ended. He was a great fisherman for mountain trout. He had many pioneer experiences, even to attack by Indians and his ranch life among cattlemen, greatly trying but rich experiences. C: Flora, Adelma, Clarence, John, Effie.

Rev. John K. Gross's father Jacob Gross, the founder of the family in America, was a native of Germany and came to this country about 1761. He settled first at Skippack, Montgomery Co., Pa., and later at Germantown where, because of his active service, he was honored by having his name inscribed on the tablet of the Germantown Mennonite Church. This church, it is said, is now in possession of the Indiana Mennonite Conference. The pioneer Jacob Gross removed to Bedminster Twp., and was ordained as a minister in the old Deep Run Menn Ch. Later he became bishop of that church. He was a shoemaker by trade and also did farming while in active service to his church. He d Dec. 12, 1810, aged 67 years. His wife d Feb. 10, 1816, aged 63 years; both are buried in the cemetery adjoining the Deep Run church. They had six children; Christian, Isaac, Mary, Daniel, John, Jacob. Many of the descendants of these sons became ministers of the gospel.

They attended the Meth Ch. Miller, Wadsworth, O., and Cuyahoga Falls, O. and restaurateur, Akron, O. In his early manhood Mr. Leatherman attended college with the view of fitting himself for a professional career but changed his plans and went into the milling business with his father at Wadsworth, O. After following this business for about ten years he opened the old Brenheiser restaurant beside the old Empire house in Akron, O. Later, because of difficulty in renewing his lease, he closed the restaurant and returned to the milling business, this time in Cuyahoga Falls, O. After about seven more years of milling his love of furnishing people with good food could no longer be resisted and he returned to the restaurant trade and again opened at his former location on Market Street in Akron, O. When the building in which he was located was to be torn down to make room for a new hotel he established a chain of restaurants called the Gridiron system of restaurants. He remained the owner of this chain of restaurants until about a year before his death when he sold out the business. He was known to thousands as the "pancake king" of Akron. He belonged to no clubs and took no interest in politics other than that of voting. Good music and checkers were his favorite hobbies. C: Perry, Eva, Jerry, Roy, Harley.

In 1876 Mr. and Mrs. Garber and their two children moved to Emmet Co., Mich. where for months they lived in the same building with the Indians at Crossvillage, an Indian village which at that time had less than a dozen white people in it. The Indians were very peaceable but few of them could speak the English language. Mr. Garber and family were pioneers in that section and on Jan. 23, 1877 they took up a homestead in the hardwood forest in Bliss Twp., Emmet Co., Mich., 16 miles southwest of Ft. Mackinaw and were among the first settlers there. Their first house had two rooms upstairs and four rooms below. Water from a spring on the hillside was piped to the yard with the overflow running into a watering trough in the barnyard. The log house with two of its rooms, the kitchen and pantry, built of lumber, a few years later was burned to the ground, consequently it was like starting anew to rebuild a home for the family. With patience and perseverance they worked together to erect their new home.

Mr. Garber went to Elkhart Co., Ind. with his parents in 1851. In 1868 he went to Kent Co., Mich. where he and Mrs. Garber were married. After having the struggle of farm life he ventured into the mercantile business in which he could not refuse a customer what was asked for. From deflation and other causes the country home was lost. Later other land was secured and with the help of his wife and children they again "made another good, comfortable home. His life was one of indefatigable industry, his career one of care, anxiety, and disappointments, and withal no one who ever lived in Bliss or does live in it, did more to promote the material interest of the locality but in a way that has brought neither wealth nor renown."

Mrs. Garber was a devout Christian, baptized in her youth and rebaptized by immersion in the form of the Chr Ch when she was nearly 80 years old. She was a lover of nature and tried to make a pleasant home for her husband and children. Both Mr. and Mrs. Garber rest in the family lot in the Bliss cemetery, Emmet Co., Mich. The closing days of their lives were spent in Petoskey, Mich., where they had moved before Mr. Garber's death. Mrs. Garber had united with the Chr Ch but Mr. Garber was buried in the care of the Rev. Gabriel, a minister of the Menn congregation. C: Salina, Delia, Olin, Maude, Donald, Ellis.

3. Christian Stauffer Letherman, b Bedminster Twp., Oct. 23, 1769, d there Apr. 17, 1815; m Apr. 25, 1793, Anna Kraut, b Feb. 9, 1770, d Apr. 30 1856, dau of Jacob and Anne (Schwardle) Kraut of Bedminster Twp.; both lie buried in the old Deep Run graveyard where modern marble tombstones have been set beside the ancient shale stones which had originally marked their graves. Between them lie the remains of their little dau Anna who d when not quite two years old. Her grave marker is inscribed "A.L.M. June 29, 1805." Christian and Anna lived on the farm more recently occupied by Morris Maynard. Christian was a very energetic man. Menn.

Besides the 126 acre farm which Christian received from his father's estate, he bought from Henry Ruth and wife, Mary, by deed dated Apr. 1, 1805 (Deed Book 34, page 409), 40 acres at Deep Run, adjoining the Menn Ch plat, and  $5\frac{3}{4}$  acres a part of the Peter Tinsman tract adjoining his other land, from John Stover and wife, Phebe of Bedminster.

Letters of administration on the estate of Christian Letherman, late of Bedminster, dec'd, were granted May 18, 1815 to his son Jacob and Jacob Beidler after his widow, Anna Letherman, had renounced her right thereto in their favor. The inventory of his goods and chattels, rights and credits was made the same day. It covers three pages and includes a long list of claims by note, book accounts, bonds, etc. against various people. Among these items are:

Note against Anthony Fretz .....	$123.00
Bond against Anthony Fretz and Mark Fretz.....	66.67
Bond against Abraham Leatherman .....	133.33
Bond against Philip Leatherman .....	363.00

Bond against Philip High and a number of others.

The first account, filed July 26, 1816, shows a balance of $3795.94 and the final account, filed Mar. 25, 1818, shows that this balance was distributed among the widow and seven children, the widow receiving one-third and the balance divided equally among the children. At this time five of the children were minors. Joseph and Susanna, being over 14 years of age, chose their own guardians; Joseph chose his uncle Joseph Letherman, Susanna chose Conrad Harple. Upon petition of the widow, Anna, the Orphan's Court on Sept. 1, 1817 (Book 5, pages 8 and 9), appointed guardians for the three daughters: Abraham Fretz for Mary, Joseph Landis for Esther, and William Fretz for Anna. Jacob and John were of age.

On page 152 of the same docket appears the petition of Jacob Letherman, oldest son of Christian, setting forth that his father died intestate, leaving a widow, Anna, and the above named seven children, and seized of a messuage and tract of about 120 acres adjoining the lands of Henry Letherman, John Overholt, Henry Stover and others and a dam of water on the land of John Overholt, also a messuage and tract of 45 acres adjoining lands of Abraham Kulp, David High, Peter Dinsman and others and asking for valuation and partition thereof among the heirs. An inquest was awarded, the homestead tract was divided into two parts and valuation returned Dec. 1, 1817. The part "with the Mansion House, barn and other buildings" containing 92 acres, 136 perches, and the dam on Overholt's land, was valued at $60 per acre and adjudged to Jacob; No. 2 containing 61 acres, 97 perches, with right of a road over the millrace, valued at $38 per acre, was adjudged to John. No. 3, the 45 acre tract, valued at $29 per acre, was directed to be sold. This was afterwards reported sold to Joseph Letherman for $1125.47. Menn. Farmer and sawmiller, Deep Run, Pa. Jacob Leatherman

Esther Letherman, and Enos Isaac Letherman, son of Isaac and Rachel (Shaum) Letherman. Thus the remains of the grandparents on both sides of the Isaac Letherman family rest side by side in this cemetery. Grandfather Joseph Letherman was called "Grose Choe" in Pennsylvania Dutch, or "Big Joe" in English, because of his size. When he died they had to carry his body out of doors to lay it in the casket which would not go through the door of the house, it was too wide. During his early as well as his later life he put forth much energy which, together with his weight, likely called him to an early death. He died at 63 years of age. He made no will, at least records fail to reveal one. Peter Troxel served as administrator of his estate.

When a young man, not yet 21 years old, Joseph Letherman bought from the estate of his father, Christian Stauffer Leatherman, the small farm of 45 acres and 3 perches which his father had bought in two tracts, near the old Deep Run church and schoolhouse, Bucks Co., Pa., the farm Harvey L. Gross owns now (1937), the deed being executed Apr. 6, 1818. This land had been adjudged to him at the time his father's farm was partitioned in 1817. He paid \$1125.47 for it. On Apr. 5, 1831 he sold this farm to Jonas Fretz for \$1300. (Deed Bk 53, pg 771). Apr. 1, 1831, Abraham Fretz and wife Susanna, Joseph Letherman's sister, conveyed to Joseph, six acres of land in Rockhill Twp. where they took up their residence after the sale of the Bedminster home. Jan. 20, 1832 he bought another tract of land in Hilltown Twp. on the borders of Rockhill Twp., near Perkasio, conveyed to him by the admrs. of Elias Rosenberger. On May 10, 1833 he sold 2 acres and 23 perches from his farm to Rev. Andrew Strassburger for a waterway or millrace, and procured from Strassburger 5 acres and 56 perches. (Many times Irvin Letherman heard his father speak of the Strassburger millrace.) Apr. 3, 1840 Joseph Leatherman of Hilltown and Esther, his wife, conveyed to David Nees, 64 acres and 119 perches of land in Hilltown and Rockhill Twps., Bucks Co., Pa., for \$3037.18 $\frac{3}{4}$  (Deed Book 64, pg 591), the remnants of the lands purchased in 1831, 1832, and 1833.

Later in 1840, after he had sold his farm in Bucks Co., Pa., Joseph took his family and his "belongings" in a covered wagon drawn by a horse and a cow, tradition says, hitched together, the cow furnishing them with milk on their way west over the mountains to Wayne Co., O. There they settled on a farm, the Stare farm, near New Pittsburg village, where the parents remained until they departed this life. That old style linchpin wagon with its bows for supporting the cover, is now in the relic house on the Isaac Letherman homestead in Olive Twp., Elkhart Co., Ind. Also in this relic house is one article which grandfather Joseph Letherman made and which we prize highly. It is none other than his name "J. Letherman" carved or smithed into a piece of iron with a handle by which to hold it while heating it to burn his name on the wood of his carpenter tools and farm implements. It must have been quite a task to make the letters on the iron and such small ones too.

Joseph and wife were members of the Menn Ch. When a young man, Joseph attended services at the old Deep Run Ch, and their older children attended school in the Deep Run schoolhouse. In Wayne Co., O. the family no doubt attended church at the Eight Square "meeting-house." Menn. Carpenter, farmer, and blacksmith. both of whom also lie at rest beneath a large arbor vitae tree planted by Isaac and Susan (Link) Bachert Letherman. The arbor vitae planted in the South Union Cemetery by the side of the tomb of Jacob Bachert, was planted at the same time they planted the arbor vitae in the North Union Cemetery. How considerate they were in the planting and in their lives together. God bless the toil of their hearts and hands.

Isaac Letherman spent his boyhood days in Hilltown and Rockhill Townships by the Strassburger millrace in Bucks Co., Pa. He was twelve years old when, in 1840, he migrated with his parents in the covered wagon,

The main part of this home was built in 1866. The addition to it was built in 1927 and 1928.

The barn and wagon-shed, (lower picture) facing south, are located back of the evergreen trees, (upper picture) just north of the house on the Old Homestead of Isaac Leatherman. The wagon-shed was moved close to the barn and all the buildings were rebuilt by I. J. Leatherman.

The relic house built 1923 on the site of the old log house which was built in 1853. The cross, placed by I. J. Letherman, is near the middle of Rachel Letherman's former garden where she had her flower beds. Bears the inscription, "Rachel Letherman garden."

across the Alleghenies to Wayne Co., O. There he grew into young manhood and, instead of crossing the rockies during the gold excitement, he married. When his third child was about six weeks old, in the spring of 1853, the family of five, in a covered wagon, wound their way through the woods to Elkhart Co., Ind., where the summer or fall before he had been and purchased of ----- English 98.39 acres of land, mostly well timbered. This land is considered the old homestead. On this land they "pegged away," clearing it of timber and stumps to raise grains and grasses for the stock and make a living for the family. Buildings were also necessary, such as barns, sheds and a frame house, all of which, in due time, were erected in the order considered most necessary. The large frame house was built in 1866, just 13 years after the log house was built.

In 1876, Isaac and Rachel attended the World's Exposition in Philadelphia, Pa., and visited their Bucks Co., Pa., relatives. Different times they went to see their parents and relatives in Wayne Co., O., and also made trips to the west into the prairie states, especially to Kansas. A part of the wagon in which they moved to Elkhart Co., Ind. is in the relic house, and much of the household furniture, antiques, barn tools, the sled, fanning mill, hay fork and such like. Rachel's large spinning wheel and reel, bed, trundle bed, and chairs are now in the relic house, which stands where the log house stood and was built in 1923, 70 years after the log house was built.

The old homestead was purchased by their son, Irvin J. Letherman, in 1911 and in 1934 he gave it to the M B C Ch to be used as a home for the needy; if not so used, to revert back to the heirs.

Isaac and Rachel Letherman purchased an 80 acre farm in St. Joseph Co., Ind. It was just one mile west of the old home and contained large white oak trees mostly, which they sold to lumbermen. After the timber was taken off, they sold the farm and bought the Joseph Longenecker 80 acre farm lying also in St. Joseph Co., a mile south of the former timber eighty acres. They also had purchased of old Uncle Abraham Yoder, 40 acres of land lying one mile east of the old home, and the Cyrus Meyers twenty-three acres just across the road from the 40 acres. When Rachel died the Joseph Longenecker 80 acres was sold and the money distributed among the children.

They were both Menn of the Funk branch and attended the Holdeman Church, one mile west and one-fourth mile north of Wakarusa, but when Daniel Brenneman withdrew from that branch, Rachel followed the withdrawal and clung to the M B C Ch until the Lord called her home. Isaac and his second wife, Susan, attended the Holdeman Church. They moved into the village of Wakarusa. Farmer. Whatever new he considered applicable on and about the farm he bought and used. He was of the first to own a high springed buggy of two seats. He was the first to have mowers and binders and such like. The fireplace and big chimney had no room in their log house; they were old styled but the out door bake oven was welcomed out of doors and later indoors. when, in about 1878, they built a summer kitchen to the new frame house. A fireplace was put in the summer kitchen. You see the old log house, having been moved up near the new house for a summer house, was too unhandy and tiresome for Rachel, being heavy in weight. After Rachel died and Isaac and Susan moved to Wakarusa, the kitchen part of the house was sold to Harvey Letherman who moved it about two miles S. W. to his farm where it became the main part of his home dwelling.

(Shank) Longenecker, b Holmes Co., O., Feb. 14, 1842, d Spring Hill, Johnson Co., Kans., Apr. 18, 1918; rest side by side in Spring Hill Cemetery. They were members of different churches as best suited to their location; M B C Ch while in Ind. and Meth while in Kans. Mr. Longenecker worked for the Letherman family. He scraped out the ground for the cellar of the new house in 1866. Soon after their marriage, they moved onto the farm Joseph purchased in St. Joseph Co., Ind., two miles S. W. of the Letherman home. In 1874 they moved to the old Longenecker home in Holmes Co., O. In 1878 they returned to their own home in Ind. After a long siege of pneumonia in the spring of 1884, they decided to sell out and move away from the lowlands in Indiana, to Kansas to gain better health. They purchased a fine large farm, about six miles south of Peabody, Kans., with over twenty acres of apple orchard on it. Here the dry climate was a drawback, consequently they sold the farm in 1903 and located near Spring Hill on a farm in Johnson Co., Kans., but later retired and moved into a home purchased in the village of Spring Hill. They also bought a small farm near the town De Soto on the west coast of Florida where they made their home at intervals after retiring from the farm in Kans. C: Clara, Nora, Vern.

Lehman, living 2½ mi. north of Wakarusa, Ind., b Elkhart Co., Ind., Mar. 20, 1853, d Goshen, Ind., Nov. 11, 1929. Both were buried on the banks of the Baugo running aside the Shaum Cemetery by the Shaum Church. "Frank" was raised on the banks of the Baugo running through the Old Homestead farm. Here he helped chop down trees and cut logs and hauled them to the sawmills to be sawed into lumber for the various buildings erected on the farm. He also helped to cut wood and logs that were marketed at Elkhart and South Bend, Ind. He did the hauling to market as well. His job was mostly with the team of horses all around on the farm and hauling with the sled and mudboat over the snow and ice. Frank and Hettie started housekeeping in a log house on the forty acres, a mile south of the old home. Three years later, he purchased an eighty acre farm near Teegarden, Marshall Co., Ind. On this farm he reared his family. It was a joy for his brother Irve to visit Frank's, living in Marshall Co., Ind. Irve took his first ride alone on the train from Bremen to Teegarden on the B. and O. Railroad. What a double joy for Irve! In 1895, Frank sold out and moved to Mayville, No. Dak. and lived on a 640 acre ranch. In 1912 he and his wife returned to Ind. and lived at the edge of Nappanee, and later lived on the old Jacob Pletcher farm in the south part of Wakarusa, Ind. He sold the Pletcher farm and purchased a farm near Benton, Ind. He also purchased a house and lot in Goshen. The lot was near the Goshen College where they attended church and Sunday School. sterville, Pa., Mar. 21, 1882; m 2nd Mar. 5, 1884, Anna Rittenhouse of Campden, Ont., Canada, b May 10, 1860, d Feb. 10, 1923, dau of Jacob F. and Agnes (Wisner) Rittenhouse, a descendant of John Fretz who migrated to Canada in 1800; m 3rd June 24, 1925, Amanda Fretz, widow of his brother Mahlon, b Sept. 11, 1864.

The Rev. Allen Fretz's life was very much like all farmer boys who were ambitious and received a call for giving a boost in behalf of human rights among men. At the age of sixteen years, he attended the Mennonite Seminary at Wadsworth, Ohio. This school was in accord with his early training. He taught public school for eleven terms, working on his father's farm during the summer, and attended Excelsior Normal Institute, Carversville, Pa. for further preparation in life's work. We could dwell on his sacrifice and hard labor in the preparation for his life before him, but we direct you alone to his accomplishments. His special call came to him in 1883, and he was ordained Oct. 13th by Bishop Moses Gotshall, to service in the ministry of the Mennonite Church, and was installed pastor of the new Deep Run Church, which he held 56 years. What he has accomplished there, also at Perkasio, Souderton, Leidy-town and other churches, and with their church paper, "The Mennonite", together with his many other activities, covers a much larger field than this writer could express in words. His ordination to the bishopric came to him by the will of the people and at the hands of the Rev. William S. Gottshall and Rev. J. S. Moyer at Deep Run, Pa., Nov. 24, 1892. It is said that he delivered about 9000 sermons, married 219 couples, held nearly 700 funeral services and baptized almost 400 persons. The work in leadership was to be done, and he did it nobly. 3. Mary S. Letherman, m David High (Hoch in German). According to tradition they migrated to Canada with the 1799 exodus from Bucks Co., Pa. to Canada.

The Exodus from Bucks Co., Pa. into Canada

In 1868 D. N. Moyer secured the following from his uncle, Jacob Albright who was one of the migrating party:

During the summer of 1799, Amos Albright, Abraham Meyer, and Jacob Meyer traveled on foot from Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. to the Niagara District in Upper Canada, Canada West. Quebec then was known as Lower Canada or Canada East. The men were on a prospecting tour. They were so well pleased with the country that before returning they bought 1100 acres of land on the Indian Trail, now the Hamilton and Queenstown road. This land sold for $2.50 per acre. Land lying near the lake sold at $1.50 per acre. A deposit of Forty Dollars ($40.00) secured them the purchase. They returned home on foot. The land of promise was so alluring that in the fall of 1799, they and others with their families migrated to Canada. Each family needed a four-horse team to convey them through the forests and marshes on the way. It was a dangerous adventure of long and tedious duration. Some days they proceeded only a few miles. They built fires and camped at night. At Black Rock they crossed the river in a ferry boat. Their first winter was severe and they suffered great hardships.

The following year there was a second company of neighbors who wended their way to Canada. Four horses to a wagon were needed for easy travel. About 60 persons with eleven teams composed this second company. They too had all kinds of experiences along the way. Wagons upset, "whippletrees and doubletrees" were broken, "stalled in the mud" and what not? One evening when they were camping, some of the women chased a snake into the foot of a hollow tree. They put fire to it, and while resting in their wagons, the tree fell and killed three horses which belonged to Daniel Hoch, which was a great loss to him. Why did it occur? He had a four-horse team of stallions which he kept "slick and clean" and decorated, the pride of his trip. He was somewhat haughty in teasing and boasting to others. Another night, when they were camping by a stream, a heavy rain and flood came which disturbed their rest but left no ill effects. Finally they arrived at their destination in Canada. It was pioneer life to all of them. Jacob and Magdalene (Ledterman) Hoch were of the pioneers in Canada. The above named Daniel Hoch may have been their son. The Hoch family records were not secured. I. J. L.

3. Anna S. Letherman, m Ralph High, likely a brother to David. They also were said to have gone to Canada. No response was received from either the David or Ralph High families.

3. Joseph S. Letherman, d y in 1783.

2. Abraham Ledterman, b in Germany Nov. 29, 1739, d Bedminster Twp., Feb. 24, 1823, aged 83 years, 2 months, 25 days; m Annah Hoch of Hilltown Twp., b Bucks Co, Pa., July 22, 1745, d Apr. 5, 1840; both are buried in the old cemetery at Deep Run, Pa., near which Abraham was reared on his father's farm by the Deep Run Creek.

By deed dated Aug. 14, 1767 Abraham bought of Henry Hegeman, 178 acres, 53 perches of land lying mostly in Bedminster Twp. but partly in Plumstead Twp. His sister Catharine willed him her land on payment of 109£, and at his death to go to his heirs.

His will, dated Apr. 29, 1815, probated Apr. 8, 1823, devised to his wife "Annah" one cow, one bed, one stove, kitchen dresser and garden, the liberty of his house, room and kitchen, also 50 pounds and one-third of his estate during her natural life, then to be sold and the proceeds divided among his children. His wife was also to have 6 bushels of good rye and 5 bushels of wheat yearly. His real estate was devised to his sons Philip, Henry, John, and Jacob, by paying 12£ per acre, at the rate of 100£ each year, to be valued and divided by them. Legacies were also given to his son Abraham and daughters, Magdalene, wife of Jacob Heavener, and "Annah".

Abraham's tomb is marked, like the others, with a slab of native shale stone tapering a little in width and the top shaped into three scallops, the center one larger and higher with a somewhat crown-shaped figure carved on its face. The stone is further decorated with a line of notched carving along each side of its face, and the words of the German inscription are separated by groups of four dots arranged as the points of a diamond. The second and third syllables of the word "Abraham" are also so divided. The inscription, "Her Ligt Abra ham Ledterman Er ist Gestorben Den 24 Hornung 1823 Er war 83 Jahr 2/m 25 Dag", occupies eight lines. The marker for Anna's grave is narrower and carved with very few straight lines. The inscription, also in German, reads: "Anna Letherman Gestorben Den 5 Abrel 1840 Altar 94 I 8 m 13 D.

4. Jacob F. Leatherman, known in the Penna. Dutch dialect as "Dick Chake" or "Thick Jake", was b in Bucks Co., Pa., June 15, 1803, d Guilford Twp., Medina Co., O., July 24, 1892; m Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 25, 1827, Margaret Overholt, youngest dau of Joseph and Elizabeth (Wismer) Overholt, b Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 2, 1807, d Guilford Twp., Medina Co., O., Sept. 16, 1872; both buried in the cemetery of the lower Menn Ch, Wadsworth Twp., Medina Co., O. In the spring of 1831 Jacob with his then small family migrated by covered wagon from their former Bucks Co., Pa. home to Medina Co., O., the journey having taken about six weeks, and settled on a farm near the village of River Styx. Besides his own family the migrating party included the Martin Shaum, Polly Beam, and Sarah Leatherman families. The farm at River Styx for which he paid $3.00 per acre, has since Jacob's death, always remained in possession of his children and grandchildren. Jacob went back to Bucks Co., Pa. numerous times to visit. It is said that he made the trip six times on foot. The saying is that if the little things are looked after, the big ones will take care of themselves. So it was with Jacob Leatherman's pipe. He took pride in packing the tobacco into the pipe so firmly and so carefully that he could, and always did, smoke it upside down yet nothing dropped out of it. The pipe itself, however, sometimes was temporarily lost or mislaid. It is told that once during the haying season he missed his favorite pipe which was later uncovered near the bottom of the haymow in the barn and had a small circular hole burned in the hay around the pipe. About two years after his death that barn burned down, but the fire, needless to say, was not caused by grandpa's pipe. Menn. In his early manhood Jacob was a carpenter, later farmer. C: Henry and Joseph, Sarah, Elizabeth, Mary, Samuel, Katie, Anna, David, Fannie, John, Maggie, Jacob, Manasseh.

Ch. Their farm originally was a part of his father's homestead farm. The River Styx flows through it, the house standing on one side of the stream and the barn on the other. The bridge is a covered one and was built wide enough to store farm tools, wagons and buggies on either side of the driveway. A flowing well of very cold water furnishes refrigeration for victuals. Ch of God in Chr Menn. Henry was ordained as minister of this church about 1879 and served in that capacity until his death. Carpenter, farmer. Henry was very apt with carpenter tools and made many beautiful pieces of furniture for their home. C: Sabilla, Martin, Maria, Maggie, Jacob, Minnie, Lizzie, Anna.

6. Joel J. Leatherman, b Guilford Twp., Medina Co., O., Aug. 8, 1877, m Newton, Kans., Jan. 18, 1905, Mrs. Anna Maria (Mani) Brawand, b Grandvillars, near Paris, France, July 12, 1869, dau of Frederic Auguste and Catherine (Rich) Mani. Chr Ch. Mrs. Leatherman is well educated and is a Mechanotherapist. Both completed a clinical course in Mechano Therapy at the American College of Mechano Therapy, Chicago, Ill., Mr. Leatherman in 1914 and Mrs. Leatherman in 1915. They practiced their profession in their home in Moundridge, Kans.

In Feb., 1895, when the Jacob O. Leatherman family was moving to Kans., Joel went with his father to help care for the live stock, traveling in a freight car with the stock and household goods. The temperature registered 20 degrees below zero during practically the entire trip. They settled on a farm about 12 miles from Newton where the rest of the family joined them later.

In this rural community the farmers were at that time getting their mail from Newton only once a week and frequently not that often when the roads and weather happened to be worse than usual. In 1898 a number of neighbors requested Mr. Leatherman to try to have a postoffice established in their community. The government was petitioned with the result that a postoffice was established under the name of Schley and Mr. Leath-

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leatherman, 1905, and their home in Moundridge, Kans.

erman was appointed as its postmaster. This office was discontinued four years later because of the establishment of a rural delivery route through the Schley community. Oct. 1, 1904 Mr. Leatherman was appointed carrier on this mail route. After retiring from the mail service Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman moved to Fla., in Jan., 1938.

Mr. Leatherman served in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army in France during the World War, attaining the rank of Sergeant M. C. He holds a commission as First Lieutenant, San-Res, U.S. Army. He has served as Commander of the local American Legion Post for 5 or 6 terms. He has been in France twice since his discharge from the army; in 1920 on a visit to his wife's relatives and to war areas as well as to Switzerland and other points, and again in 1927 as delegate to the American Legion convention in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman have no children of their own but reared and educated Fernand Edward May and Suzanne Rolande Deshayes, Mrs. Leatherman's nephew and grand niece.

Fernand Edward May, son of Mrs. Leatherman's sister, came from France in 1911 to make his home with his aunt and uncle. He mastered our language and completed his grade and high school education in 5 years. In 1917 he enlisted in the air service of the U. S. Army and served in the World War.

Suzanne Rolande Deshayes, dau of Fernand Edward May's sister, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman from France when she was 11 years old. She learned our language and completed her grade and high schooling in 7 years, graduating from Moundridge High School in 1926 as salutatorian of her class. Pursuing her education further she took a course in the Fine Arts Department of the Univ. of Wichita, Kans.

Mary was b Bucks Co., Pa., Nov. 26, 1810, d Guilford Twp., Medina Co., O., Apr. 23, 1897; all three are buried in the cemetery by the old Wisler Menn Ch in Wadsworth Twp., Medina Co., O., known as the lower church.

While yet a young man, Abraham, like many others of his day, had a desire to "go West" so he saved his wages in order to satisfy that desire. In the spring of 1831, with $300 in his pocket, he walked from Bucks Co., Pa., to Medina Co., O., and there bought a wagon, a team of horses, and about 107.58 acres of thickly wooded land out of what was known as the Ely tract, the transfer deed bearing the date June 7, 1831. He paid $220 for the land. Beside a natural spring of water on this farm he cleared a space and built a two-room log cabin and otherwise prepared to make this his homestead. After completing his summers' labors he drove his horses back to Bucks Co., Pa., arriving there in ample time for his wedding on Dec. 6. The following spring he and his wife, accompanied by a group of relatives with their families, moved to Ohio by wagon train, the entire group settling within a few miles of each other, Jacob and wife taking possession of the log cabin he had built the summer before and which was later replaced by an eight-room frame house which is still used as a dwelling though remodeled on the inside. The original and only barn built on the homestead part of the farm is also still standing and in good repair. In those days there was more timber than could be used and in clearing the land to make room for crops a large amount of good timber was piled in heaps and burned to get it out of the way. The timber thus destroyed on a single farm would now be worth a good sized fortune. Mrs. Leatherman worked side by side with her husband in clearing the land and often lay her first born in the hollow of a stump out in the fields while she worked.

When the need of a sawmill in the neighborhood became apparent Mr. Leatherman built a dam across the stream flowing through his farm and erected thereby a water power mill with an up and down saw, and proceeded to saw lumber for his own use and the use of the neighbors all around. The dam also served as a "swimmin' hole" for the boys in the neighborhood. About 75 years after the old dam had fallen away it was restored and Kuhn's lake on the same site became a popular resort for swimming, boating and skating for a few years then the dam was again razed.

In 1860 Abraham Leatherman bought an adjoining 50 acres of land from the Thomas Trimbee heirs. Thomas Trimbee had bought it out of the Ely tract in 1832. On this Abraham built a 10-room frame house in 1867 and other farm buildings. He then owned a quarter section of land. After his death the entire farm was divided into two nearly equal portions, his son Daniel and his son-in-law Jacob B. Overholt becoming the owners, Jacob Overholt occupying the homestead portion. Years later when the Overholt farm was put up for sale Daniel Leatherman bought it and was then the owner of the entire Abraham Leatherman holdings. This farm is now owned by Daniel Leatherman's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kuhn. Menn. Farmer and sawyer east of Seville, O. Menn at Deep Run. Jacob spent his boyhood helping his parents clear the land and run the sawmill. In 1864 Jacob was drafted to serve in the army in the Civil War but was relieved by the hiring of a substitute to whom his father paid $600 to take Jacob's place. This was a practice often followed at the time of the Civil War. When a young man Jacob learned the carpenter's trade. Later he went to Bucks Co., Pa., to visit in the vicinity of his father's birthplace and to work at his trade. He was married there and remained there during the rest of his life. He was a carpenter until his marriage, then took up farming. In 1872 he bought the Israel D. Fox farm of 72 acres near Pipersville, Pa., where his son Abraham afterwards lived.   6. Daniel S. Leatherman, b near Pipersville, Pa., in Bedminster Twp., Sept. 8, 1874, m Bucks Co., Pa., in 1894, Esther E. Detweiler of Blooming Glen, Pa., b Dublin, Pa. in Bedminster Twp., Apr. 15, 1877. She was educated in the common schools of the township. On his father's farm near Pipersville, Pa., Daniel learned to work. In those days, of course, there was little labor-saving machinery on the farm—no binder or manure spreader, no tractor, gasoline engine, or automobile, and but few modern conveniences in the home—no electric light or heater, no telephone, electric washer, or radio.

He went to school during winter after the work was done. Educational facilities were meager and the school term short; yet, encouraged by several teachers, and by personal effort, he received a fairly good common school education. Just to see how things were he took the teachers' examination in Hilltown Twp. in 1893 and to his surprise was granted a certificate by Supt. William H. Slotter. He then began teaching. All told he taught eight years in Bucks Co., Pa. and eight years in Montgomery Co., Pa. Meanwhile, not satisfied with his meager schooling, he entered the Perkasio H. S. in Jan., 1895, graduating that summer, and from Millersville state Normal School in 1899. He is also a grad. of Schissler College of Business, Norristown, Pa., 1903.

From 1895 to 1903 he lived in Blooming Glen, Pa. whence he moved to Center Square, Pa. and lived there until 1910 then moved to Lansdale, Pa. where he has since resided. He entered the Government Civil Service in 1913, and shortly after became letter carrier in

Mr. Leatherman spent the days of his boyhood and youth on the farm. Like many other young men in those days, when he became of age he decided to "go west." In 1898 he and his brother John left home to visit Leatherman relatives in Medina Co., O. and in Mich. In the spring of 1900 he made a more extended trip, this time going as far as Kansas and Nebraska, where he arrived just in time to plant watermelons. He did not stay long enough, however, to get a taste of the melons, but went to Buffalo, N. Y. to see the Pan-American Exposition. Returning to Ohio he worked for his uncle Daniel Leatherman for about eight months. During this time he toured over a great deal of Ohio country on a Sears Roebuck bicycle.

When he again returned home he secured employment in one of Bucks County's pioneer tailoring factories at Pipersville, Pa. owned by William Fretz. It was there that he met Laura Kratz who became his first wife. He has been connected with the tailoring business for about 43 years, at first using the heavy flatirons for pressing, then the Hoffman steam press. Heirs and legatees, brothers Jacob, Abraham, Michael, Henry, John Leatherman, sister Magdalen, wife of Jacob Hoch, or their heirs; Ulry Hockman and Annah Hockman, children of Henry Hockman; devised the tract of land which she occupied, to her brother Abraham on payment of £109, 11s, 6d; at his death to go to his heirs. The inventory of her estate was made Aug. 3, 1822 and shows amounts due from Philip Leatherman 16 pds., Abraham Leatherman, Jr. 10 pds., Henry Leatherman 15 pds., John Leatherman, Sr. 16 pds., Jacob Leatherman, Sr. 6 pds. An account was filed Dec. 8, 1825.

2. Henry Ledterman, b in Bucks Co., Pa., d Plumstead Twp., Mar., 1779; m Elizabeth ———. His will, like those of his brothers and sisters, is in German, and was made Dec. 7, 1778; it was signed in a good legible hand "Ledterman"; translated and probated July 21, 1782; executors "uncle Philip Johns" or Jantz and Rudolph Landes both of whom had been in touch with Henry's father's will, Jantz as a witness and Landes as one of the executors. The widow renounced letters of administration Aug. 3, 1782, although she had not been named as executrix. Inventory was made Mar. 29, 1779. He does not seem to have been a land owner. He followed the joiner and turner trade as is indicated by a clause in his will which says: * * * "my Tools to the Joyner and Turners Trade shall be put in a chest and saved for my Son till he is grown up, and then it shall be appraised what it is worth, then he shall give the half thereof to my Daughter." The joiner tools that were left to Henry by his father's will were sold. These tools and the price received were itemized in the inventory of Henry's estate and the proceeds thereof accounted for by the executors. C: Jacob, Magdalene.
2. John Ledterman, the youngest of Jacob and Magdalene Ledterman's children who lived to grow to maturity, d in Bedminster Twp., likely near the line of Plumstead Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 1838. His will, dated Mar. 16, 1831, probated Feb. 3, 1838, devises all the estate to his wife Anna for life, and after her decease the real estate to Henry Leatherman of Plumstead, son of Abraham, and the personal estate to Jacob Leatherman, son of Michael, and to Abraham Swartz, John Swartz, Christiana Swartz, Elizabeth Peck, to be equally divided amongst them; executor, Abraham Overholt, son of Martin; the will made and signed in English, the signature very shaky indicating age and weakness. The inventory amounting to $225.03½ was filed Feb. 5, 1838, and the account of the executor, filed Jan. 17, 1839, showed a balance for distribution of $166.38½. John m Anna Swartz. No issue.

The Organization indicated by the above photograph, taken while Rev. I. J. Letherman was pastor of the church shown on the opposite picture, had its Constitution and By-Laws, Slogan, Motto, Emblem and Colors. It was indeed a Sunday Club, whose activities were devoted to bettering church attendance.

The Illinois City Church, built 1912-13. I. J. Letherman pastor 1910-13. The church building had all modern apartments and equipments.

The Wakarusa home of I. John Letherman from 1890 to 1896. The persons "shown" in the picture are Mrs. Letherman and daughter Mabelle (who was born in the home), I. John and his Sunday School class.

THE SUNDAY STARS

A Sunday Club

SLOGAN:—

"Go to Church! Go to Sunday School!"
 Pep up, step up, Sunday Soldier,
 Fall in line, rain or shine,
 Ever bold, storm or cold
 Keep apace in the race
 With the golden glowing sun.

MOTTO:—

"Subdue Sin."
 Any fair way to overcome evil.
 Dare to be fair and square with God and fellowmen.

EMBLEM:—

The golden glowing sun shining in a seven pointed star. Seven points, a brilliant ray for every day. On the face of the sun inscribed, "Subdue Sin, S. S. Pro Bono Communi," meaning, Subdue Sin, Sunday Stars, for the good of the community.

COLORS:—

Pin—Golden glowing red. Life-like.
